2002 Season Preview With Head Coach Bobby Williams

Michigan State returns 16 starters overall from last year's 7-5 team, including eight on offense, seven on defense and one specialist. Third-year head coach Bobby Williams takes a position-by-position look at the 2002 Spartans.

Offensive Scouting Report

Michigan State displayed dramatic improvement on the offensive side of the football in 2001. The Spartans led the Big Ten and ranked No. 18 nationally in total offense, averaging 447.0 yards per game. Michigan State also led the league and finished No. 14 nationally in passing offense, averaging 292.5 yards. In addition, the Spartans stood third in the Big Ten and No. 33 in the NCAA in scoring offense, averaging 31.2 points per game.

Williams talks about the offensive game plan:

"We've tweaked the offense a little bit by opening up some of the formations. We'll shift some of the personnel around so defenses can't load up to stop the run."

Offensive Line

Michigan State's starting offensive line returns intact – including center Brian Ottney (6-6, 305, Jr.), guards Joe Tate (6-5, 293, Jr.) and William Whitticker (6-6, 308, So.) and tackles Ulish Booker (6-7, 305, Sr.) and Steve Stewart (6-5, 310, Jr.). That unit is responsible for 65 combined starting assignments.

Next in terms of experience are guards Paul Harker (6-3, 298, Sr.) and Joe Patrick (6-5, 307, Jr.).

Williams talks about the offensive line:

"We have two marquee names on offense, in Charles Rogers and Jeff Smoker, and they receive most of the media attention but all the battles are won up front along the offensive line. In order for the skill players to have an opportunity to perform, the offensive line has to do its job first. These guys will help Jeff take the next step in becoming a great quarterback.

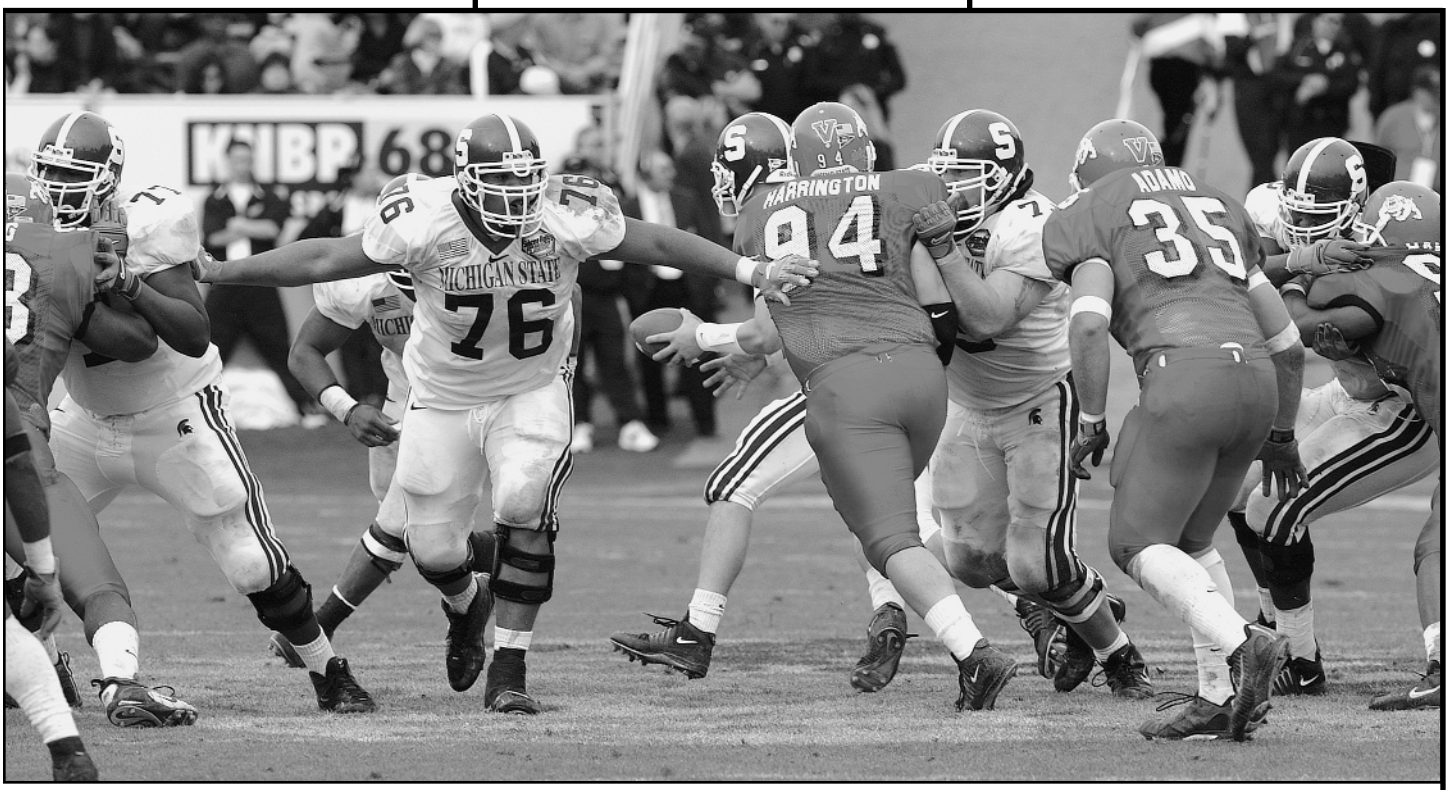
"I'm excited about this unit that returns all five starters. That unit really improved as the 2001 season progressed. I expect the line to be even more physical at the point of attack this fall. These guys will have a lot to say about the success of our football team in 2002.

"Brian Ottney truly is the anchor of our offensive line. Brian provides toughness, intensity and leadership to the lineup. The entire offense feeds off of him, and Brian has assumed that role ever since taking over at center in 2000.

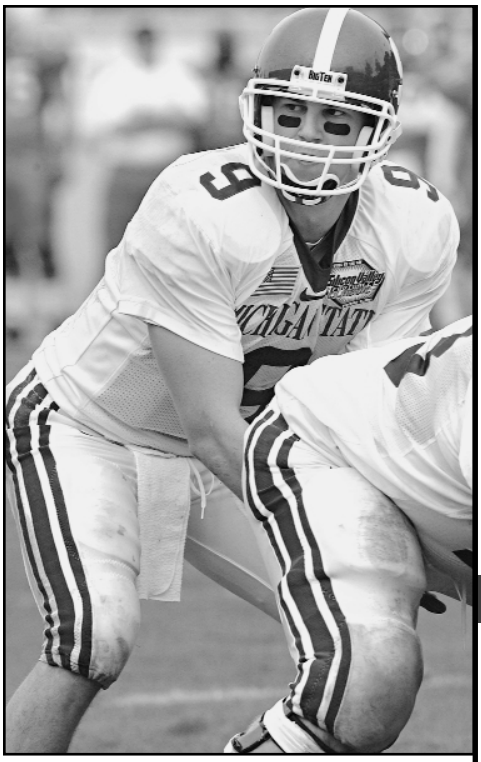
"We've added quality depth to the line and our overall strength continues to improve."

Quarterback

All-America candidate Jeff Smoker (6-3, 214, Jr.) moves into his third season as Michigan State's starting quarterback. Smoker, a consensus preseason first-team All-Big Ten selection, has compiled a 10-7 record in 17 career starts. In 2001, he completed 166-of-262 throws (.634) for 2,579 yards and a Spartan single-season record 21 touchdowns. Smoker, who ranked sixth in the NCAA in passing efficiency with his 166.4 rating, had six 200-yard passing games.



Michigan State's starting offensive line returns intact — including center Brian Ottney, guards Joe Tate and William Whitticker and tackles Ulish Booker and Steve Stewart. That unit is responsible for 65 combined starting assignments.



All-America candidate Jeff Smoker completed 63 percent of his throws for 2,579 yards and a Spartan single-season record 21 touchdowns in 2001.

Back-up QB Damon Dowdell (6-1, 211, So.) saw action in five games in 2001. Dowdell threw for 304 yards and a score in his first collegiate start vs. Purdue last fall. The Spartans have another capable, yet untested backup in Aaron Alexander (6-5, 191, R-Fr.).

Williams talks about the quarterbacks:

"Jeff Smoker consistently plays at a high level and consistently makes big plays. The challenge for him: can he become the quarterback that takes this program to the next level, the championship level?

"Jeff has a lot of good qualities. First, he has a complete grasp of our offensive system. Second, Jeff has a great feel for the game. He is a real student of the game and he does his homework. Prior to the snap, Jeff has the ability to look at a secondary, recognize the initial coverage and identify where he wants to go with the football. Third, I've seen him emerge as a leader. Jeff takes charge in the huddle and the players rally around him. His ability to play the position plus his knowledge of the game is what separates him from other quarterbacks.

"Jeff is leaps and bounds ahead of where he was as a quarterback at this time last year. There were times last year when Jeff simply didn't get the ball far enough down field. He worked extremely hard during the off-season to improve his arm strength and he's done that.

"I'm really excited about our back-up quarterback situation. This is perhaps the best depth Michigan State has ever had at this position. In Damon Dowdell and Aaron Alexander, we have two capable leaders who have the ability to play winning football.

"Damon now has a good understanding of the offense and it shows in his confidence. And Aaron Alexander has all the tools and ability but he simply needs more work in the system."

Running Back

The biggest challenge on offense is filling the shoes of tailback T.J. Duckett, Michigan State's fifth all-time leading rusher with 3,379 career yards. Duckett, selected No. 18 overall by Atlanta in the 2002 NFL Draft, rushed for 1,420 yards in 2001 – the fifth-best single-season total in Spartan history. As a junior, he accounted for 77 percent of the Spartans' rushing offense (1,420 of 1,854 yards) and scored 12 of its 19 rushing touchdowns.

The top candidate to replace Duckett is Dawan Moss (5-10, 226, Sr.), who has shed 32 pounds since making the transition from fullback to tailback last spring. In his first three seasons, Moss carried the ball 73 times for 265 yards (3.6 avg.) and five TDs.

Leading candidates for playing time at fullback include Mark Goebel (6-2, 237, Jr.) and Jason Bradley (6-0, 251, So.).

Williams talks about the running backs:

"We lost a pretty good running back by the name of T.J. Duckett, but I think Dawan Moss has a lot of potential as a runner. Last year, we really started to work on Dawan's development as a runner in anticipation of T.J.'s early departure for the National Football League. Dawan has a natural feel for the position. He's got the size and strength you look for in a running back plus he has excellent vision and change of direction.

"Dawan is a tough, physical runner but he simply hasn't had very many opportunities to carry the football. He had only 17 touches as a red-shirt freshman in 1999 but those were very productive carries. I'm

:.. Season Preview

Former fullback Dawan Moss, who has rushed for 265 yards in his first three seasons at Michigan State, ranks as the heir apparent to the starting job at tailback following the early departure of T.J. Duckett to the National Football League.

confident Dawan will be able to carry a significant load for our running game.

"Tyrell Dortch (5-10, 200, Jr.) has made great strides in his recovery from a broken leg nine months ago but it's far too early to determine what type of role he'll be able to assume this fall.

"We must identify some other backs that can contribute to the running game right away. Four freshmen tailbacks will report for preseason camp, so I'm anxious to see if any of them will be able to have an immediate impact."

Wide Receiver

Heisman Trophy candidate Charles Rogers (6-4, 205, Jr.) rewrote the Spartan record book in 2001. In his first year on the active roster, Rogers set MSU single-season records for receptions (67), receiving yards (1,470), touchdown receptions (14) and 100-yard receiving games (6). His 14 TD catches led the Big Ten.

The top contender to fill the flanker slot vacated by Herb Haygood is BJ Lovett (6-4, 208, Sr.). Others who should figure prominently in the playing rotation at wide receiver include Ziehl Kavanaght (5-11, 182, Jr.) and Ben Steckler (6-4, 208, R-Fr.).

Williams talks about the wide receivers:

"Charles Rogers is arguably the best big-play receiver in the country. We have to continue to find ways to get the football in his hands and put him in a position to make plays. Charles is one of the few players around that can break open any given game because he can score from anywhere on the field.

"A key to Charles' success is his ability to get off the line of scrimmage. It doesn't matter if corners press or play bump-and-run. It's extremely difficult to disrupt Charles because of his speed and quickness. And what I appreciate most is his toughness. Charles will catch the ball over the middle, take a big hit and come back and play the next down. He also has shown the willingness to play a physical role in our running game, getting down field to block. Charles is the complete package. He's a big, physical receiver with game-breaking ability.

"We have challenged all of our receivers to make plays because we know all of the attention will be focused on Charles this fall. Our other receivers will get plenty of opportunities to work one-on-one with defensive backs and those are match-ups they have to win.

"BJ Lovett is a prime candidate to assume an expanded role in the passing game. BJ had a frustrating junior year. He had an opportunity to make several plays last season and didn't. BJ had a good spring and I think he's ready to take the next step.

"I like the quality of our depth at wide receiver. I expect to see Ziehl Kavanaght and Ben Steckler to compete for significant playing time this fall."

Preseason All-American Charles Rogers set Michigan State single-season records for receptions (67), receiving yards (1,470), touchdown receptions (14) and 100-yard receiving games (6) in 2001.

Tight End

Gone is All-American Chris Baker, Michigan State's career record-holder for receptions by a tight end with 133. Also missing is his back-up Ivory McCoy (39 career catches). Despite the losses, the Spartans are deep and talented at tight end, paced by Jason Randall (6-5, 250, So.), Eric Knott (6-3, 251, So.) and Ryan Woods (6-4, 248, R-Fr.).

Williams talks about the tight ends:

"We signed three tight ends in the 2001 recruiting class and two of them received valuable playing time last fall. Jason Randall is a guy that really came on strong at the end of last season. We had talked about red-shirting Jason but he played his way into the tight end rotation. He matured quickly by playing on the scout team and going against our first-team defense everyday.

"We moved Eric Knott from defensive end back to his natural position of tight end. He has all of the tools to play this position but he simple needs to learn the offensive system. Eric had a good spring and has a chance to be an impact player this fall.

"Ryan Woods is another guy who brings a lot to the table. He's got the size and the skills. Ryan had a good 2001 preseason camp but unfortunately, we lost him to an injury three games into the season. He gained some valuable playing experience last year.

"We have two other guys competing for playing time at tight end – Matt Walters (6-2, 248, Jr.) and Eric Easter (6-4, 226, Sr.). Walters is a versatile player, with excellent hands, so we can utilize him a lot like we did Baker. We can flex him or put him in motion. His playing time will increase as he learns the offensive system.

"We're going play a lot of two tight-end sets so we're going to teach these five guys how to play both positions, Y and H."

Defensive Scouting Report

Williams is determined to find improvement on the defensive side of the football after Michigan State ranked seventh in the Big Ten in total defense (386.5 yards per game) and scoring defense (25.9 points) and eighth in rushing defense, allowing 180.8 yards per game. Despite the loss of four starting cornerbacks to injury, the Spartans ranked among the NCAA leaders in pass defense (No. 14 at 176.1 yards per game) and pass efficiency defense (No. 19 with 105.5 rating).

Williams talks about the defensive game plan:

"We need to get back to playing Michigan State defense and that means stopping the run. We had too many letdowns and breakdowns against good running teams last year. We also need to develop a consistent pass rush."

Defensive Line

Michigan State will build its 2002 defensive line around tackle Kyle Rasmussen (6-4, 287, Jr.) and end Greg Taplin (6-5, 256, Jr.). Matthias Askew (6-6, 286, So.) heads into preseason camp atop the list of candidates for the other starting job at defensive end while Kevin Vickerson (6-5, 285, So.) is slated to replace three-year starter Josh Shaw at defensive tackle.

All-Big Ten candidate Kyle Rasmussen led the defensive line and ranked fifth on the team in tackles with 54 in 2001, including three for losses.

:.. Season Preview

Williams talks about the defensive line:

"We're extremely young along the defensive line. In fact, there isn't a senior listed on the two deep. Despite the inexperience, there's quality, young talent at each position.

"A top priority remains to develop a consistent pass rusher. We simply haven't had a dominating edge rusher since Julian Peterson left after the 1999 season. We'll continue to do some things from a scheme standpoint to pressure opposing quarterbacks but the bottom line is someone needs to step forward and become a factor.

"Greg Taplin has shown flashes of brilliance in the past but now he needs to play with more consistency. We moved Matthias Askew outside from defensive tackle to end to give us a little more athleticism. Clifford Dukes (6-3, 254, So.) has played a lot of football here but it's time for him to take his play up a notch.

"I'm anxious to monitor the progress of three other young linemen – Darrell Hamilton (6-4, 235, So.), Dominick Brown (6-3, 265, Jr.) and Luc Mullinder (6-4, 272, Jr.). Those three guys can all run. Darrell, who had a good spring, might be our most athletic defensive end. He has shown the ability to run down plays from the backside.

"We have two solid players inside, in Kyle Rasmussen and Kevin Vickerson. Kyle played extremely well down the stretch last year, and Kevin really came on strong late and played an outstanding bowl game."

Linebacker

The biggest challenge on defense is replacing four-year starter and All-American Josh Thornhill at MIKE linebacker.

Back in the fold are returning starters Mike Labinjo (6-1, 254, Jr.) and Ronald Stanley (6-0, 220, So.). Look for Labinjo, who led the Spartans in tackles for losses (17), sacks (5) and quarterback hits (12) in 2001, to shift from SAM linebacker inside to the MIKE position. Stanley, who earned second-team Freshman All-America honors in 2001, heads into his second season as the starter at the WILL position. Monquiz Wedlow (5-11, 198, Jr.), who played extensively at WILL linebacker in 2001, is the projected starter at the SAM position.

Other contenders for playing time at linebacker include Seth Mitchell (6-2, 246, R-Fr.) and Michael Bazemore (6-3, 242, R-Fr.).

Williams talks about the linebackers:

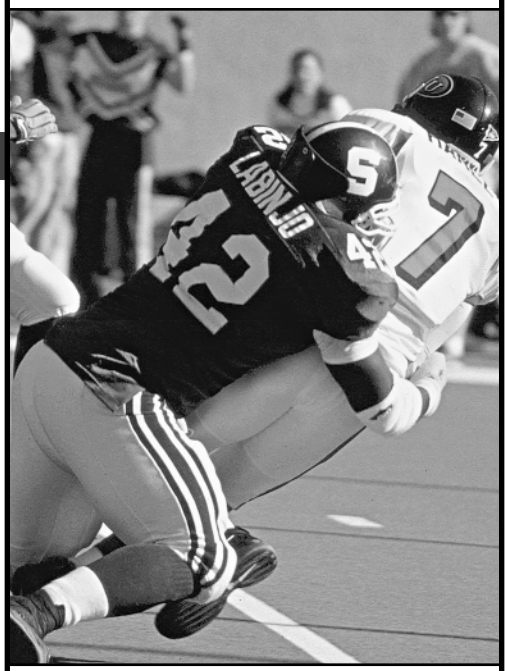
"It's impossible to replace someone like Josh Thornhill. Josh did so many things that didn't show up in the stat sheet. He was a great student of the game and knew our system so well that he was able to help get all the players lined up properly before every snap.

"I'm extremely pleased with the overall ability we have at linebacker. We have a good nucleus of players but someone needs to step forward as a leader.

"In an attempt to get our three best linebackers on the field at one time, we've moved Mike Labinjo from SAM to MIKE linebacker. Mike made a lot of big plays for us last year and he'll get even more opportunities now as a result of the position change.

"Ronald Stanley is an excellent athlete and did a lot of good things for us as a true freshman. He runs well and has good instincts as a linebacker. Ronald worked hard during the off-season too so we expect him to have an even greater impact as a sophomore.

"Monquiz Wedlow has shown the knack for being in the right place at the right time. Monquiz has the speed and power to make things happen. He's been very productive in spot situations before, primarily in our nickel package.



Mike Labinjo, who led the Spartans in tackles for losses (17 for 64 yards) and sacks (5 for 34), is the leading candidate to replace four-year starter and All-American Josh Thornhill at middle linebacker.

"It's simply a matter of time before Seth Mitchell makes his presence known. Seth had an outstanding 2001 preseason but a knee injury sidelined him for the season. He's going to compete for playing time this fall. Also look for Michael Bazemore and James Cooper (6-3, 229, So.) to work their way into the playing rotation."

Defensive Back

The Spartans are well stocked in the defensive secondary, thanks to the presence of nine returning lettermen, including starting corners Broderick Nelson (6-0, 171, Sr.) and Cedric Henry (5-10, 182, Sr.) plus safety Thomas Wright (6-1, 193, Sr.). The only vacancy in the defensive backfield is at free safety, where Jason Harmon (5-11, 189, So.) joins the starting lineup.

In 2001, Nelson led the Spartans in interceptions (5), pass break-ups (20) and forced fumbles (5). Henry, who led the Big Ten in pass break-ups (24) and ranked third in interceptions (5) in 2000, returns to the starting lineup after being declared academically ineligible just two weeks prior to the 2001 season opener. Wright, who has started 22 straight games at safety, led the secondary and finished second on the team in tackles with 92 last season.

DeMario Suggs (5-11, 197, Sr.), Roderick Maples (5-10, 180, So.) and Robert Flagg (6-2, 197, So.) bring added experience to the secondary.

Williams talks about the defensive backs:

"The strength of our defense is obviously the secondary. We have nine lettermen back and they've all played quality football.

"There's no question that Thomas Wright is the ringleader of our defense, especially in the secondary. Thomas does it all – sets the coverage, makes the checks and handles the rotation. We also like to utilize him as a run-stopper. Thomas is the big hitter in the secondary so that's why we put him in a position to make so many plays against the run.

"You can't say enough about the season Broderick Nelson had in 2001. He started the season as a backup and with the rash of injuries in the secondary, he found himself in the starting lineup. He worked his tail off to make himself into a pretty good defensive back, practicing his fundamentals, his footwork and studying film. Team's knew about his inexperience and they went right at him. Broderick hung tough and made a lot of key plays for us. He honestly could have led the nation in interceptions last year. He picked off five passes but he probably dropped five too.

"It sure is nice to see Cedric Henry back on the field. Cedric has truly emerged as one of the top cover corners in the Big Ten and has a chance to become one of the top players at his position in the country. He brings a lot of confidence and toughness to the table. He's also a good tackler in the open field.

"I'm excited about the depth we have at corner with DeMario Suggs and Roderick Maples. Roderick really improved during the bowl practices, earned a spot on the field and played a great game against Fresno State. He has shown flashes of developing into an outstanding corner.

"Look for Jason Harmon and Robert Flagg to wage a good battle for the starting job at free safety."

Special Teams Scouting Report

Dave Rayner (6-2, 208, So.) heads into his second season as Michigan State's starting placekicker. Rayner, who took over the placekicking duties for the last nine games of the 2001 season, hit eight-of-14 field-goal attempts (.571) and 36-of-37 extra-point tries (.973).

One of the most topical questions for the coming year revolves around selecting a replacement for four-year punter Craig Jarrett, who finished his career with a 42.9-yard average.

Also missing from the special teams lineup is All-America kick returner Herb Haygood, who ranked ninth in the NCAA in kickoff returns in 2001 with his 27.6-yard average including two returns for touchdowns.

Williams talks about the special teams:

"One positive from the spring certainly was the continued development of placekicker Dave Rayner. Dave has always had a powerful, live leg but he really worked to improve his accuracy last spring. He has all the tools to become a key offensive weapon.

"One priority that remains is to identify the starting punter. Dave Rayner will compete against two newcomers, Brandon Fields (6-6, 215, Fr.) and Jason Daily (6-1, 180, Jr.), for the job.

"I've targeted several areas for improvement, including punt protection and punt returns. We simply can't afford to have seven punts blocked. We must get more mileage out of our punt returns and we must find a replacement for All-America kick returner Herb Haygood."

Williams talks about the upcoming 2002 season:

"We definitely weren't satisfied with our 7-5 record last season but there were many positives. The team accomplished a lot under some difficult circumstances, especially considering the number of season-ending injuries. We lost several close games but the guys never stopped competing. A significant number of young players gained valuable experience because they were forced to play sooner than expected.

"There has been a carryover effect from the bowl victory against Fresno State. This team won some big games last year and now the desire is there to take this program to the next level. We all feel like this team has a legitimate shot at contending for the Big Ten championship.

"Our goal is to build a consistent Top 25 football program. It's one thing to earn the Top 25 label but it's another thing to get the program in the national rankings and keep it there. This program is moving forward and it's headed in the right direction. Our team is excited about facing the challenges ahead."

TOP RETURNEES:
WR Charles Rogers (second-team All-Big Ten, set MSU single-season records with 67 receptions for 1,470 yards and 14 TDs in 2001); QB Jeff Smoker (led Big Ten and ranked sixth in NCAA in passing efficiency at 166.4 rating, completed 166-of-262 passes for 2,579 yards and MSU single-season record 21 TDs, 17 career starts); C Brian Ottney (21 straight starts, 156 career pancakes); RG William Whitticker (The Sporting News first-team Freshman All-American, 63 pancakes); S Thomas Wright (honorable mention All-Big Ten, team's second-leading tackler with 92 stops, 22 career starts); CB Broderick Nelson (honorable mention All-Big Ten, led team with 5 interceptions and 20 pass break-ups); CB Cedric Henry (second-team All-Big Ten in 2000, 5 interceptions and 24 pass break-ups); DT Kyle Rasmussen (54 tackles including 3 for losses, 16 career starts); OLB Mike Labinjo (led team with 17 tackles for losses and 5 sacks); OLB Ronald Stanley (The Sporting News and Football News second-team Freshman All-American, 43 tackles including 3 for losses).

TOP NEWCOMERS:
P Jason Daily (Jr./JUCO All-American averaged 40.7 yards in 2001); P Brandon Fields (Fr./All-Ohio punter averaged 41.7 yards); DT Brandon McKinney (So./Prep All-American in 2000); LB Seth Mitchell (R-Fr./Prep All-American had 146 tackles and 6 interceptions in 2000); TB David Richard (Fr./Prep All-American rushed for 1,009 yards and 12 TDs in 2001); WR Agim Shabaj (Fr./Prep All-American had 60 receptions for 1,411 yards and 18 TDs in 2001).

THE STRENGTHS

Offensive Line – Michigan State's starting offensive line returns intact – including LT Ulish Booker, LG Joe Tate, C Brian Ottney, RG William Whitticker and RT Steve Stewart. That unit is responsible for 65 combined starting assignments.
Passing Game – Michigan State led the Big Ten and finished No. 14 nationally in passing offense, averaging 292.5 yards. QB Jeff Smoker led the Big Ten and ranked sixth in the NCAA in passing efficiency. Smoker completed 63 percent of his throws for 2,579 yards and a Spartan single-season record 21 touchdowns. WR Charles Rogers set MSU single-season records with 67 receptions for 1,470 yards, 14 TDs and 6 100-yard receiving games.
Secondary – Nine lettermen return in the defensive backfield, including starting S Thomas Wright and starting CBs Broderick Nelson and Cedric Henry. Despite losing four starting cornerbacks to season-ending injuries in 2001, the Spartans still managed to finish ranked among the NCAA leaders in pass defense (No. 14 at 176.1 yards per game) and pass efficiency defense (No. 19 with 105.5 rating).

THE QUESTIONS

Running Back – Gone is T.J. Duckett, MSU's fifth all-time leading rusher with 3,379 yards. In 2001, Duckett accounted for 77 percent (1,420 of 1,854 yards) of MSU's ground attack and scored 12 of its 19 rushing TDs.
Pass Rush – MSU ranked ninth in the Big Ten in sacks with 18 in 2001. The Spartans have totaled only 36 sacks over the last two years after setting a school single-season record with 54 in 1999.
Rushing Defense – MSU ranked eighth in the Big Ten in rushing defense, allowing 180.8 yards per game in 2001. The Spartans also permitted 21 rushing TDs – the second-most allowed by a Big Ten team in 2001.
Special Teams – One of the most topical questions for the coming year revolves around selecting a replacement for four-year punter Craig Jarrett, who finished his career with a 42.9-yard average. In 2001, MSU had seven punts blocked and finished last in the Big Ten in punt returns with its 8.3-yard average. The special teams lineup also is missing All-American Herb Haygood, who finished ninth in the NCAA in kickoff returns with his 27.6-yard average including two runbacks for scores.

Head Coach

THIRD SEASON

The 2000 season marked the beginning of a new era in Michigan State football history as Bobby Williams took over the Spartan program. Amidst a groundswell of support from his colleagues, alumni, fans, players and the entire university community, the 43-year-old St. Louis native became the 21st head football coach at Michigan State on Dec. 5, 1999.

In 2001, Williams produced a 7-5 record, including a 44-35 victory over No. 20 Fresno State in the Silicon Valley Football Classic, and became the first head coach in Spartan football history to win his first two bowl games.

Michigan State got off to a quick start in 2001, winning five of its first seven games, including its fifth-straight win over Notre Dame (17-10), its first victory over Wisconsin (42-23) in Madison since 1991 and a dramatic last-second triumph over sixth-ranked Michigan (26-24). Following its upset win over the Wolverines on the game's final play, Michigan State vaulted into the national polls, ranking No. 22 by the Associated Press and No. 23 by USA Today/ESPN. The Spartans were decimated by injuries during the second half of the Big Ten schedule, with 10 starters sidelined for a combined total of 58 games.

"I'm really proud of the way the team stayed together and competed in 2001," Williams said. "The team had its share of tough breaks along the way, especially the rash of season-ending injuries, but the players hung together and made no excuses. These guys showed a lot of competitive will. With all of the injuries, a lot of young guys gained valuable playing experience.

"We finished the 2001 season on a positive note with a solid performance against Fresno State in the Silicon Valley Football Classic. I'm excited about this football program and the direction it's headed."

In his first full season as head coach, Williams compiled a 5-6 record against one of the nation's most demanding schedules (ranked No. 20 by the NCAA). Michigan State's 11 regular-season opponents had a combined winning percentage of .583 (67-48), including seven bowl teams – Marshall (Motor City), Notre Dame (Fiesta), Northwestern (Alamo), Wisconsin (Sun), Michigan (Citrus), Ohio State (Outback) and Purdue (Rose).

The Spartans opened the 2000 season with three straight wins, including a 27-21 come-from-behind triumph over No. 16 Notre Dame, and climbed to No. 15 in the USA Today/ESPN Poll. Michigan State closed out its home schedule with a bang by knocking off No. 9 Purdue, 30-10 – its second win over a BCS (Bowl Championship Series) team.

In his first two full seasons, Williams has compiled a 13-11 overall record (.542), including a 6-3 mark (.667) against teams ranked in the Associated Press Top 25.

Since taking over the football program, Williams has helped attract three top 20 recruiting classes to East Lansing, Mich. In 2000, he put together a recruiting class that experts considered to be Michigan State's best in 20 years, with PrepStar ranking it No. 2 in the nation and Tom Lemming's Prep Football Report No. 6.

Williams, the Spartans' running backs coach for 10 years and associate head coach for one year, made his head coaching debut on Jan. 1, 2000, as he led Michigan State to a 37-34 victory over No. 10 Florida in the Florida Citrus Bowl. The Spartans finished the 1999 season with a 10-2 overall record and ranked No. 7 in the final polls.

"This is truly the opportunity of a lifetime," Williams said at the press conference announcing his appointment. "I have received tremendous support from the administration, faculty, players, coaches, student body and the entire community. This move adds some stability to the program and I feel this football program is ready to take the next step, which is competing for championships."

"Clearly, we concluded Bobby Williams has the leadership capacity for the job," MSU President Peter McPherson said. "And it was very evident during the process that our conclusion was shared by many who expressed their strong support for Bobby as a leader, a manager and a sound football tactician. Bobby's selection signals stability, unity, continuity and great promise."

Williams was elevated to the position of associate head coach prior to the 1999 campaign while retaining his duties with the running backs.

He first joined the Spartan staff May 31, 1990, as running backs coach. That fall the Spartans were Big Ten co-champions and defeated Southern Cal in the John Hancock Bowl, the first of six bowl games Michigan State would reach in Williams' 11 years with the program.

During his stint with Michigan State's running backs, Williams coached seven 1,000-yard rushers including Sedrick Irvin, who in 1998 became the first Spartan in school history to reach the rushing milestone in each of his first three seasons. He also tutored Tico Duckett, who recorded three-straight 1,000-yard seasons from 1990-92, and Marc Renaud, who hit four digits in '95.

Prior to his arrival in East Lansing, Williams spent four months as receivers coach under Glen Mason at Kansas (1990).

He previously served as offensive backfield coach for five years at Eastern Michigan (1985-89). Williams handled the additional duties of administrative assistant in 1989. During his stint at Eastern Michigan, the Eagles won the '87 Mid-American Conference title and defeated San Jose State, 30-27, in the California Raisin Bowl. The Eagles finished second in the MAC standings in '88 and '89.

His first full-time coaching assignment came at Ball State where he worked with the running backs in 1983 and the defensive backs in '84. Williams served as a graduate assistant coach under Leon Burtnett at Purdue in 1982, working with the defensive backs.

Williams was a four-year letterman for Coach Jim Young at Purdue and served as a tri-captain as a senior in 1981. He helped the Boilermakers to a combined record of 38-19-1 (.664) during his five years with the program, including victories in the 1978 Peach, '79 Bluebonnet and '80 Liberty Bowls.

Williams began his college career as a running back and ranked as the team's second-leading rusher with 362 yards (99 attempts) as a freshman in '77 before becoming a three-year starter in the defensive secondary. An honorable mention All-Big Ten selection in 1980, he had eight career interceptions and 172 tackles.

Williams was an all-state running back at Sumner High School in 1976.

Born Nov. 21, 1958, in St. Louis, Bobby and his wife, Sheila, are the parents of two children, Nataly (14) and Nicholas (11).

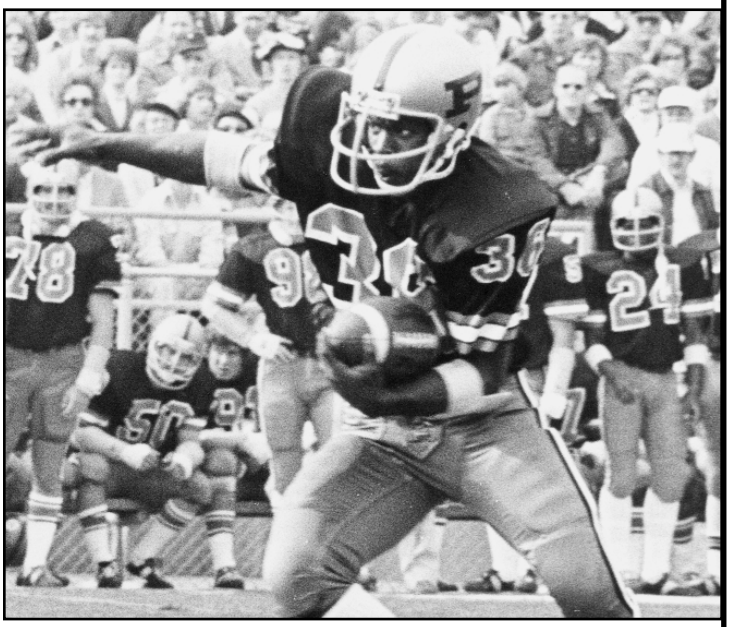
:.: Q&A With Bobby Williams

Q: How does a team learn how to win?

A: It's important that players learn how to win. Players need to learn how to handle success and they need to learn how to regroup after a loss. It is a difficult challenge but players must learn how to sustain effort for 60 minutes and they must learn the importance of playing a complete football game.

The ability to win close games is what separates great teams from good teams or good teams from average teams. That's why we stress sound, fundamental football because critical mistakes determine the outcome of those close games.



Q: How has the Big Ten changed since your playing days at Purdue?

A: The biggest difference is parity. When I played at Purdue, there were two dominant teams in the Big Ten — Michigan and Ohio State. That's why the media described the Big Ten as the "Big Two and Little Eight."

Today, there's great parity in the league. Just look at the teams that have represented the Big Ten in Pasadena in recent years. Since 1995, six different teams have appeared in the Rose Bowl. That speaks volumes.

Q: What does it mean to be the first African-American football coach at a public Big Ten institution?

A: It means a lot to me. Michigan State really made a statement by hiring me. I feel like I'm carrying the banner for a lot of coaches. A lot of them are more than qualified but they have never gotten the opportunity. Hopefully, other schools will follow Michigan State's lead.

Q: What types of different approaches have you taken as the head coach, rather than an assistant?

A: I've taken an active, universal role in the whole football team. I've always been more of an offensive coach here, but I spend a lot of time with the defense as well. I've become an overseer. I have plans to keep this program moving forward, and it will be up to me to stick to those plans and keep us headed in the right direction.

Q: How has your daily routine changed?

A: There's a tremendous amount of responsibility on my shoulders now. Things were certainly a lot different when I had to deal with only one position, now I'm responsible for 105 guys. I have to set a detailed agenda every day. There are academic issues that need to be addressed, recruiting priorities established and football strategy discussed. There's a lot of time spent on organization and planning. I'm truly fortunate to be surrounded by a great staff that helps to carry out our plans. I haven't been overwhelmed by anything but the pace is certainly hectic.

Q: How much has your life changed since being named head coach?

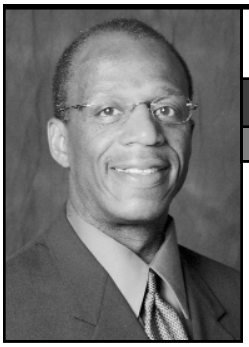
A: I'm not anonymous anymore. I use to walk through Metro Airport in Detroit as just another face but now, people recognize me. It doesn't matter if I'm pumping gas at the gas station or renting a video at the store, people in the community approach me. That's been encouraging because the fans share my enthusiasm for this job.

Q: What coaches have influenced you the most?

A: I've learned a lot about the game over the last 25 years. In high school, I learned the importance of hustle and determination. Jim Young, my coach at Purdue, taught me a lot about the mental aspects of the game. Jim was a master motivator. I learned a lot about work ethic and discipline from Dwight Wallace when I was an assistant coach at Ball State. From Jim Harkema at Eastern Michigan, I discovered how to do more with less and how to turn a negative into a positive. George Perles knew how to manage people and I learned a lot by simply watching him interact with people. And from Nick Saban, I picked up some organizational skills and the value of paying close attention to detail. All of those coaches have helped shape my approach to coaching.

Q: What goals have you set for this football program?

A: We want to be in a position to contend for the Big Ten title every year. And soon, I hope we can talk about being a national championship contender. There isn't any reason this program can't be like Florida State or Nebraska. Those programs have been consistent winners for years and that's the vision that I have for Michigan State football.



ReggieMitchell

Assistant Head Coach / Running Backs

FOURTH SEASON

Flint native Reggie Mitchell begins his fourth season at Michigan State, his third year as assistant head coach and running backs coach.

During his Michigan State tenure, Mitchell has tutored two NFL first-round draft picks, in running back T.J. Duckett (Atlanta Falcons, 2002) and wide receiver Plaxico Burress (Pittsburgh Steelers, 2000).

In 2001, Duckett rushed for 1,420 yards – the fifth-best single-season total in school history. Duckett, MSU's fifth all-time leading rusher with 3,379 career yards, became the first Spartan running back to be drafted in the first round (No. 18 overall) since Lorenzo White (Houston Oilers) in 1988.

In 1999, Mitchell coached the wide receivers, including Burress, who set then MSU single-season records for receptions (66), receiving yards (1,142) and touchdown catches (12).

The 41-year-old Mitchell came to Michigan State following two seasons as the running backs coach at Minnesota. He followed Glen Mason to Minnesota after a nine-year stint at Kansas, where he coached running backs for two years (1995-96), defensive ends for four seasons (1991-94) and defensive line for three years (1988-90). As running backs coach, Mitchell tutored June Henley, who ranks as the Jayhawks' all-time leading rusher with 3,841 career yards. He served on the Kansas coaching staff with current Spartan head coach Bobby Williams (1990).

From 1992-95, Kansas won 29 games — the best four-year total in 85 seasons. In 1995, the Jayhawks went 10-2 and finished ninth in the final Associated Press Poll, following a 51-30 victory over UCLA in the Aloha Bowl. Kansas compiled an 8-4 overall record in 1992, including a 23-20 triumph over BYU in the Aloha Bowl, and stood No. 22 in the final AP Poll.

Mitchell first joined Coach Mason as wide receivers coach at Kent State in 1987. Prior to joining Mason, he coached the running backs at Western Michigan in 1986. He served as a graduate assistant coach under Bo Schembechler at Michigan in 1985. His first full-time coaching assignment came at Ferris State in 1984 where he worked with the wide receivers.

A four-year starter as a running back at Central Michigan (1978-81), Mitchell rushed for 2,394 career yards. He helped the Chippewas win back-to-back Mid-American Conference titles in 1979-80. Mitchell earned team MVP honors in 1981 after gaining 1,068 yards rushing. He received a bachelor's degree in parks and recreation from Central Michigan in 1984.

Mitchell broke into the college coaching ranks as a student coach at his alma mater in 1983.

An all-state running back at Flint (Mich.) Southwestern High School, Mitchell later returned to his alma mater as an assistant coach in 1982.

Mitchell and his wife, Andrea, have two children, a son, Kaeman, and a daughter, Karena.

MorrisWatts

Offensive Coordinator / Quarterbacks

12TH SEASON

Morris Watts moves into his fourth season as Michigan State's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach.

Watts is in his third stint as the Spartans' offensive coordinator, having previously served in that capacity for former head coach George Perles for eight seasons, from 1986-90 and 1992-94.

In 2001, Watts was nominated for the Broyles Award, which is named in honor of former Arkansas head coach Frank Broyles and presented annually to the nation's top assistant football coach. Last season, Michigan State led the Big Ten in passing offense (school-record 292.5 yards per game) and total offense (447.0 yards) and ranked third in scoring offense (31.2 points per game). The 447.0 total yards mark the second-best single-season average in Spartan history.

Watts deserves most of the credit for the rapid development of Jeff Smoker, who led the Big Ten and ranked sixth nationally in passing efficiency as a sophomore in 2001. His 166.4 rating is the third-highest single-season total in league history. In 2000, Smoker became the first true freshman to start at quarterback for Michigan State since 1982.

In 1999, Watts directed a Michigan State offense that averaged 31.5 points per game — its highest scoring average in 21 years.

The 64-year-old Watts came to Michigan State following a four-year tenure at Louisiana State (1995-98), where he helped the Tigers to a combined record of 31-16 (.660) from 1995-98, including a school-record three-consecutive bowl victories (1995 Independence — beat Michigan State, 45-26; '96 Peach — defeated Clemson, 10-7; and '97 Independence — beat Notre Dame, 27-9). Under his direction, the Tigers won back-to-back Southeastern Conference rushing titles in 1996 and '97. He produced three of the highest scoring teams in LSU history, with the 1996 (29.5 points per game), '97 (31.5) and '98 (30.6) squads ranking among the top 10.

Watts first came to Michigan State as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach in 1986. During his tenure from 1986-90, Michigan State compiled a 37-19-3 record (.652), won two Big Ten titles (1987 and '90) and made four postseason bowl appearances (1987 Rose, '88 Gator, '89 Aloha and '90 Sun). His stay at Michigan State was interrupted by a one-year stint as quarterbacks coach with the NFL's Tampa Bay Buccaneers, where he tutored Vinny Testaverde.

Watts returned to East Lansing, Mich., in 1992 and spent three more seasons on the Spartan coaching staff, serving as assistant head coach, offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach.

His coaching credits also include stops at the USFL's Birmingham Stallions (quarterbacks, 1984-85), LSU (quarterbacks, 1983), Kansas (offensive coordinator and quarterbacks, 1982), Indiana (offensive coordinator, quarterbacks and wide receivers, 1973-81), Louisville (offensive coordinator, quarterbacks and wide receivers, 1972) and Drake (offensive coordinator, quarterbacks and wide receivers, 1965-71).

BillMiller

Defensive Coordinator

FOURTH SEASON

Bill Miller begins his fourth season as Michigan State's defensive coordinator.

During his Michigan State tenure, Miller has tutored six NFL Draft choices, including Julian Peterson (San Francisco, 2000), Aric Morris (Tennessee, 2000), Robaire Smith (Tennessee, 2000), Renaldo Hill (Arizona, 2001), T.J. Turner (New England, 2001) and Josh Shaw (San Francisco, 2002).

In 2000, Miller was nominated for the Broyles Award, which is named in honor of former Arkansas head coach Frank Broyles and presented annually to the nation's top assistant football coach. Michigan State's defense persevered in 2000 despite losing six starters from the 1999 unit, including three players selected in the 2000 NFL Draft. Miller put together a defensive package that helped the Spartans lead the Big Ten in total defense (318.3 yards per game), pass defense (164.1 ypg) and pass efficiency defense (104.5 rating). In addition, Michigan State ranked among the NCAA leaders in those stat categories, including No. 7 in pass defense.

In 1999, the Spartans ranked among the NCAA leaders in rushing defense (fifth at 77.0 yards per game), total defense (12th at 299.0 yards) and scoring defense (t-22nd at 19.2 points).

The 45-year-old Miller came to Michigan State following a four-year stint as defensive coordinator at Miami (Fla.) where he helped the Hurricanes to a combined record of 31-15 (.674) from 1995-98, including back-to-back Big East Conference co-championships (1995-96) and two bowl victories (1996 Carquest, 31-21, over Virginia and '98 Micron PC, 46-23, over N.C. State). In 1998, Miami produced a 9-3 record overall, including a 5-1 mark in Big East play, good for a share of second place, and finished No. 20 in the final Associated Press poll and No. 21 in the USA Today/ESPN coaches poll. His '98 defensive unit ranked second in the Big East in rushing defense, allowing only 135.6 yards per game. In '97, the Hurricanes led the Big East in pass defense, permitting 177.3 yards per contest.

In his first three years at Miami, Miller helped develop eight NFL Draft picks, including four first-round selections, in Kenny Holmes, Kenard Lang, Ray Lewis and Duane Starks.

A native of Hutchinson, Kan., Miller previously spent six seasons as the defensive coordinator under Pat Jones at Oklahoma State (1989-94), coaching the linebackers and defensive backs for three years each. He coached the defensive backs under John Gutekunst at Minnesota from 1986-88. During the 1986 season, Minnesota upset top-ranked Michigan, 20-17, and earned a trip to the Liberty Bowl.

Miller served as defensive coordinator and secondary coach at Nevada-Reno from 1983-85, where he helped the Wolf Pack to two Big Sky Conference titles (1983 and '85). Twice during his tenure at Nevada-Reno, the Wolf Pack led the Big Sky in total defense. His '83 unit led the nation in turnover margin and ranked third nationally in total defense.

He spent two years as the defensive secondary coach at Drake from 1981-82, where in his first season, the Bulldogs went 10-1 and earned a share of the Missouri Valley Conference crown. Miller began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Oklahoma State (1979-80) and his alma mater, Texas-Arlington (1978).

Stoutland's offensive line helped pave the way for T.J. Duckett, who produced back-to-back 1,000-yard rushing seasons in 2000 and 2001. Duckett, the No. 18 pick overall in the 2002 NFL Draft by the Atlanta Falcons, rushed for 1,420 yards in 2001 – the fifth-best single-season total in Spartan history.

PatPerles

Tight Ends

THIRD SEASON

Pat Perles enters his third year as tight ends coach at Michigan State.

In his first two seasons, Perles coached Chris Baker, who in 2001 became Michigan State's career record-holder for receptions by a tight end with 133. Baker, a second-team All-America selection by the Football News as a senior, was chosen in the third round of the 2002 NFL Draft by the New York Jets (No. 88 overall).

The 38-year-old Perles came to Michigan State following six years as an assistant coach in the Canadian Football League.

He worked for two seasons as offensive line coach for CFL's Hamilton Tiger-Cats (1997-99). He helped Hamilton to a combined record of 28-13-1 (.679), including back-to-back appearances in the Grey Cup. In 1999, the Tiger-Cats produced an 11-7 regular-season record before reeling off three-straight victories, including a 32-21 triumph over Calgary in the Grey Cup.

During his tenure in Hamilton, Perles developed an offensive line that allowed the fewest sacks in the CFL each of the last two seasons. In 1999, the Tiger-Cats permitted only seven sacks in 18 regular-season games — the lowest total in league history. The offensive line provided near perfect pass protection for quarterback Danny McManus, who was not sacked once over the last 11 games of the season. Three of his linemen earned All-Eastern All-Star Team honors in '99. In 1998, the team surrendered only 15 sacks in 18 regular-season games — the second-lowest figure in CFL history.

Perles previously spent one year as offensive line coach with the CFL's Winnipeg Blue Bombers (1997) and three seasons with the Saskatchewan Roughriders (1994-96).

In 1993, he served as a graduate assistant under his father George Perles at Michigan State, working primarily with the defensive secondary.

Perles worked one season as a defensive assistant coach under Chuck Knox with the NFL's Los Angeles Rams (1992). Prior to his first stint in the pro ranks, he coached the defensive line at the University of Toledo for three years from 1989-91, including the 1990 season when the Rockets claimed a share of the Mid-American Conference crown.

He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Michigan State in the spring of 1988.

An all-state nose guard at Upper St. Clair (Pa.) High School, he started his playing career at Kent State before transferring to Michigan State. He was on the Spartans' football roster from 1983-85 as a walk-on outside linebacker. He earned his bachelor's of science degree in marketing and advertising from Michigan State in 1987.

Married to the former Karen Pauls of St. Catharines, Ont., Perles and his wife have three children, Hannah (3 1/2), Julia (6 months) and Joseph George (2).

Going Bowling

Michigan State made its 16th postseason bowl appearance in 2001, including its fourth New Year's Eve game, at the Silicon Valley Football Classic in San Jose, Calif. The Spartans defeated No. 20 Fresno State, 44-35, as head coach Bobby Williams won his second bowl game. The 2001 Silicon Valley Football Classic also marked Michigan State's fifth trip to California for a bowl game. The Spartans are 7-9 in bowl games, including two straight wins over ranked opponents (No. 20 Fresno State in 2001 and No. 9 Florida, 37-34, in the 2000 Florida Citrus Bowl)

Split end Charles Rogers was named the Silicon Valley Football Classic Offensive MVP, while defensive end Nick Myers was honored as the game's Defensive MVP. Rogers finished with a career-best 10 catches for 270 yards and two touchdowns. Meanwhile, Myers harassed Fresno State All-America quarterback David Carr and recorded two tackles for a loss of 17 yards.

Mr. Rogers' Neighborhood

Charles Rogers made his presence known during the 2001 season. In his first year on the active roster, Rogers finished with 1,470 yards receiving, which ranks first all-time in the MSU annals. Rogers' total yardage was the second-best single-season mark in Big Ten history, trailing only Wisconsin's Lee Evans (2001) with 1,545 yards.

His record-breaking season also included the MSU single-season marks for receptions (67), touchdown receptions (14) and 100-yard receiving games (six). He also tied for eighth on the single-season charts by averaging 21.9 yards per catch.

Rogers saved his best for the Spartans' 44-35 victory over Fresno State in the Silicon Valley Football Classic. He finished the game with 10 catches for 270 yards. His 270 receiving yards marked a career best and set a Spartan single-game record, breaking the previous mark of 255 set by Plaxico Burress against Michigan in 1999. Andre Rison previously held the MSU bowl record with 252 yards (nine catches) vs. Georgia in the 1989 Gator Bowl.

Smoker Right On Target

Sophomore quarterback Jeff Smoker had a sensational sophomore campaign. He led the Big Ten and ranked sixth nationally in passing efficiency with his 166.4 rating. Smoker's 21 TD passes (first), 2,579 passing yards (third) and .634 completion percentage (fifth) rank among the top single-season totals in Spartan history.

Over his last eight games, he completed 64.1 percent (143-223) of his throws for 2,283 yards (285.4 per game), 20 touchdowns and seven interceptions. Smoker posted six 200-yard passing games during that eight-game stretch, including three straight 300-yard efforts with a career-best 376 yards vs. Fresno State.

Smoker, who has compiled an 10-7 record in 17 career starts, already ranks among MSU's all-time leaders in completions (ninth at 269), completion percentage (sixth at .586), passing yards (eighth at 3,944) and passing TDs (tied for fourth at 27).

Duckett Carries Rushing Load

Junior tailback T.J. Duckett accounted for 77 percent of Michigan State's rushing offense (1,420 of 1,854 yards) and scored 12 of its 19 rushing touchdowns in 2001. He finished third in the Big Ten and 20th in the NCAA in rushing, averaging 118.3 yards per game.

Duckett hit the 1,000-yard rushing mark for a second-straight year and became only the fifth running back in Michigan State history to reach the 3,000-yard career rushing milestone with 126 yards vs. Penn State.

His top showing was a season-high 211 yards on 27 rushes in MSU's 26-24 upset victory over No. 6 Michigan, for which Duckett earned USAToday.com National Player of the Week and Big Ten Offensive Player of the Week honors. He became the first running back of the year to gain 100 yards against Michigan, which entered the game ranked first in the NCAA in rushing defense, allowing only 54.4 yards per contest. Duckett also became the first back in Spartan history to record a 200-yard rushing game in the MSU-Michigan series. His 2-yard touchdown run in the second quarter vs. Michigan gave the Spartans a 14-10 lead. Duckett also caught three passes for 19 yards vs. Michigan including the game winner, a 2-yard TD toss from Jeff Smoker as time expired.

"The Diesel" leaves MSU with his name firmly in the Spartan record books. He closed his career ranked among MSU's career leaders in rushing yards (fifth with 3,379), rushing touchdowns (tied for fourth with 29), rushing attempts (sixth with 621) and all-purpose yards (10th at 3,530). He also recorded 14 career 100-yard rushing games, including seven in 2001.

That Unforgetable Moment

The final score said it all: Michigan State 26, Michigan 24.

Before a packed house at Spartan Stadium, Jeff Smoker directed his fourth game-winning fourth-quarter drive of his career against sixth-ranked Michigan, helping the Spartans overcome a 24-20 deficit in the final 2:09. He engineered a 15-play, 44-yard drive and his 2-yard TD toss to T.J. Duckett as time expired gave Michigan State a 26-24 victory.

With time running out, Duckett found an opening in a crowded end zone. Smoker spotted Duckett and lobbed the ball over the outstretched hands of two leaping Wolverines. The ball landed safely in Duckett's arms, giving MSU a thrilling victory.

"I was jumping up and down in the end zone, waving my arms," Duckett said. "It's a big win for our program."

Duckett was mobbed in the end zone by his celebrating teammates in front of a cheering student section just after the catch and the victory celebration was on.

It's Academic

Senior linebacker Josh Thornhill was named second-team CoSIDA/Verizon Academic All-American for a second straight year in 2001. Thornhill, who carried a 3.53 grade-point average in kinesiology, also earned second-team Academic All-America honors as a junior.

Thornhill became Michigan State's fifth two-time Academic All-American in football. Thornhill joins Blanche Martin (1957-58), Allen Brenner (1966, '68), Dean Altobelli (1985-86), Shane Bullough (1985-86) and Steve Wasylk (1992-93) as the only two-time selections.

To be nominated for the Academic All-America team, a student-athlete must be a starter or an important reserve with at least a 3.2 cumulative grade-point average (on a 4.0 scale) for his career. He also must have reached sophomore athletic and academic standing.

Second(ary) To None

Despite the loss of four starting cornerbacks, Michigan State ranked among the NCAA leaders in pass defense (No. 14 at 176.1 yards per game) and pass efficiency defense (No. 19 with 105.5 rating). In addition, the secondary accounted for 16 of the team's 18 interceptions in 2001.

Michigan State's secondary took its first hit Aug. 28 when Cedric Henry, a preseason first-team All-Big Ten selection, was declared academically ineligible for the 2001 season. Jason Harmon and DeMario Suggs suffered broken ankles during non-contact drills in successive practices Oct. 3-4. Tyrell Dortch became the fourth casualty of the season when he suffered a broken leg in the second quarter of the Oct. 27 game at Wisconsin.

Baker Adds His Name To Record Book

Chris Baker, who started a school-record 47 consecutive games, ranks as Michigan State's career record-holder for receptions by a tight end with 133. Baker also caught at least one pass in 24 straight games – the nation's longest streak by a tight end at the conclusion of the 2001 season.

A second-team All-America selection by the Football News, Baker established career highs for catches (40) and receiving yards (548) in 2001.

Rogers, Haygood Rank Among NCAA'S Top Receiving Duos

Michigan State's Charles Rogers and Herb Haygood combined for 124 receptions for 2,278 yards and 18 touchdowns in 2001. That's why the Spartans' receiving corps was ranked third best in the nation according to The Sporting News.

Haygood Named Walter Camp and CNNSI.COM All-American

Herb Haygood, who ranked second in the Big Ten and ninth in the NCAA in kickoff returns with his 26.3-yard average, was named first-team All-American as a kick returner by Walter Camp and CNNSI.com.

Haygood, who led the NCAA in kickoff returns for three straight weeks from Oct. 14-Nov. 3, was one of only three players in NCAA I-A football to return two kickoffs for touchdowns in 2001. He scored on kickoff returns of 84 yards vs. Northwestern and 100 yards vs. Iowa. The 6-foot, 190-pound senior became the first player in Michigan State's 105-year football history to return kickoffs for scores in back-to-back games and his 100-yard runback against Iowa tied the Spartan record for longest return.

Upset Specials

Michigan State is 13-8 (.619) in its last 21 games against teams ranked in the Associated Press Top 25, including a 10-5 record (.667) over the last three seasons (1999-2001). The Spartans were 3-1 vs. Top 25 teams in 2001, including victories over No. 6 Michigan (26-24), No. 23 Notre Dame (17-10) and No. 20 Fresno State (44-35) and a last-second loss at No. 16 Northwestern (27-26).

Spartans Set Season-Tickets Sales Record

Michigan State fans purchased an all-time record 61,990 football season tickets for 2001, according to totals released by the MSU Athletics Department. It marked the third-straight year Michigan State had established a football season-ticket sales record.

The previous record for season tickets sold was 61,479 in 2000. Michigan State football season-ticket sales have topped the 60,000 mark four of the last five years.

Spartan Offense Hits Full Stride

Michigan State displayed dramatic improvement on the offensive side of the football in 2001. Consider these statistics:

- The Spartans were third in the Big Ten and No. 33 nationally in scoring offense, averaging 31.2 points per game. In 2000, Michigan State finished 10th in the Big Ten and 96th in the nation in scoring offense, averaging 17.9 points. The Spartans scored 50 touchdowns in 2001, 26 more TDs than the team managed in 2000.
- After finishing eighth in the Big Ten in passing offense (196.5 yards per game) in 2000, Michigan State led the league and ranked No. 14 nationally in passing offense, averaging 292.5 yards. The Spartans' passing game accounted for 27 touchdowns in 2001, 17 more passing TDs than the team scored in 2000.
- Michigan State ranked among the Big Ten (first) and NCAA (No. 18) leaders in total offense in 2001, averaging 447.0 yards per game. The previous year, the Spartans finished seventh in the league and No. 61 nationally in total offense, averaging 366.8 yards.
- The Spartans stood fifth in the Big Ten in third-down conversions at 42.9 percent in 2001. By comparison, Michigan State finished last in the Big Ten in third-down conversions in 2000 at 31.3 percent.

Labinjo on a Rampage

Linebacker Mike Labinjo, a 6-foot-1, 268-pound converted fullback, led the team in tackles for losses (17 for 64 yards), sacks (5 for 34) and quarterback hits (12). He ranked third overall in tackles with 64 (42 solos, 22 assists).

Labinjo contributed nine stops (7-2) vs. Wisconsin, including four for losses (25 yards). He earned Spartan Defensive Player of the Week honors for the second time in 2001 after registering a career-high three sacks (23 yards) against the Badgers.

He recorded a career-high 16 tackles (11-5) vs. Northwestern with three going for losses (10 yards), including a 7-yard sack. He shared Spartan Defensive Player of the Week honors vs. Notre Dame after producing six tackles (3-3), including three behind the line of scrimmage (9 yards). Career Record: 29-5-0

An outstanding athlete at Pennsylvania, John Macklin succeeded Chester Brewer as Aggie coach. He was said to have stood about 6-5 and weighed around 250 pounds. Macklin won more than 85 percent of his games at MAC, compiling 29 victories in 34 contests. Among his greatest accomplishments were a 35-20 win over Ohio State in 1912, the first achieved by MAC over a Big Ten team; the school's first victory over Michigan, 12-7, in 1913; a 6-3 upset win against Penn State in 1914; and a 24-0 shutout of Michigan in 1915. Macklin died in 1949 at the age of 65.

George E. Gauthier (1918)
Career Record: 4-3-0

The first Michigan State alumnus to direct an Aggie team was George Gauthier, a quarterback under John Macklin in 1912 and '13. Though the record was only 4-3, his 1918 club produced one of the most astounding upsets in Aggie history defeating Knute Rockne's first Notre Dame team which starred a sophomore back named George Gipp. A year after leaving MAC, Gauthier assumed duties as athletic director and head coach at Ohio Wesleyan, a dual position he held for 34 years. He died in 1964 at the age of 74.

George "Potsy" Clark (1920)

Career Record: 4-6-0

George "Potsy" Clark, an All-America quarterback under the legendary Bob Zuppke at Illinois, served as MAC's coach for only one season. The Aggies had a losing record, but one of those victories was a record 109-0 rout of Olivet. Among his other stops in college coaching were at Minnesota and Butler. He also served as athletic director at Nebraska, 1945-1953. Clark is probably best known as head coach of the Detroit Lions which won the 1935 NFL title. He died in 1972 at the age of 78.

Ralph Young (1923-27)

Career Record: 18-22-1

An outstanding player for both Fielding Yost at Michigan and Amos Alonzo Stagg at Chicago, the roly-poly Ralph Young coached MAC and MSC with only moderate success. However, he brought stability to a program that badly needed it, laying the foundation on which the school's athletic structure grew. MAC nearly surprised powerful Michigan in its stadium dedication game of 1924, losing 7-0. Young, who also was a fine track and field coach, is best known for his success as State's athletic director, 1923-54. He died in 1962 at the age of 72.

Harry Kipke (1928)

Career Record: 3-4-1

Michigan football All-American Harry Kipke directed the Spartans for only one season. A Lansing (Mich.) High School graduate, he began his coaching career with a 103-0 victory over Kalamazoo College, but highlights after that were few and far between. Kipke nearly directed State to an upset victory over his alma mater, and that performance probably enticed Michigan to hire him as its coach the very next season. He died in 1972 at the age of 73.

Jim Crowley (1929-32)

Career Record: 22-8-3

Jim Crowley, one of Notre Dame's immortal Four Horsemen, joined Michigan State's staff as its head football coach in 1929. His arrival became the catalyst which transformed a mediocre program into a nationally-respected major power for the first time since the coaching era of John Macklin. "Sleepy Jim" produced four-straight winning seasons for the Spartans. A pair of 0-0 ties against Michigan in 1930 and '31 broke State's 14-game losing streak to the Wolverines, a span which saw UM outscore MSC by a total of 392-9. A night game loss at Georgetown spoiled the Spartans' otherwise undefeated season in 1930. He was named head coach at Fordham in 1933, becoming the architect of the "Seven Blocks of Granite." Crowley died in 1986 at the age of 83.

Charles Bachman (1933-46)

Career Record: 70-34-10

Charlie Bachman, another Notre Dame alumnus, succeeded Jim Crowley as head football coach at Michigan State, coming to East Lansing after a successful stint at Florida. A teammate of Knute Rockne, Bachman employed the Notre Dame system and forged 10 winning seasons in 13 years. During his second season with the Spartans in 1934, he led State to an 8-1 record, which included a 16-0 victory over Michigan, the school's first since 1915. That marked the first of four-straight wins over UM. MSC posted another 8-1 regular-season record in 1937 and received the school's first bid to a postseason bowl game, the 1938 Orange Bowl. Among Bachman's greatest Spartan players were guard Sid Wagner, State's first All-American since 1915, halfback John Pingel and fullback Jack Breslin. Bachman died in 1985 at the age of 93.

Clarence "Biggie" Munn (1947-53)
Career Record: 54-9-2

The most successful Spartan coach of all-time in terms of winning percentage was former Minnesota All-American Clarence "Biggie" Munn. He came to MSC directly from Syracuse where he served only for one season. Despite an inauspicious 55-0 drubbing from Michigan in his Spartan debut, Munn turned things around quicky, ending that 1947 campaign with a 7-2 record. Workman-like progress continued the next two seasons, but then the Spartans exploded onto the national scene in 1950 with an 8-1 mark, a record which included victories over excellent Notre Dame and Michigan clubs. That year's eighth-place national ranking was improved to second in 1951, a year which saw State go 9-0, its first unbeaten-untied record since 1913. MSC reached the pinnacle in 1952, claiming the mythical national championship with a second-straight 9-0 record. For that performance, Munn was named college football's Coach of the Year. Success continued in 1953, the Spartans' first campaign as a member of the Big Ten Conference, running their winning streak to 28 in a row, before falling, 6-0, at Purdue. State went on to post five wins after that, including a win over UCLA in the 1954 Rose Bowl. During Munn's seven seasons at MSC, he produced 17 different All-Americans, headlined by the great two-way tackle Don Coleman. Biggie was voted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1959. About a week after State's Rose Bowl victory, Munn stepped down from coaching to assume duties as MSC's athletic director. He served in that capacity for 18 years, building the Spartans into a nationally-prominent program. A stroke in 1971 forced him to retire from Michigan State. Munn died four years later in 1975 at the age of 66.

Hugh Duffy Daugherty (1954-72)

Career Record: 109-69-5

One of the most popular coaches in the history of college football was Michigan State's personable Duffy Daugherty. An undergraduate star for Syracuse, he was a member of Biggie Munn's staff there in 1946 when State hired Munn. Daugherty served initially as line coach at MSU, tutoring such Spartan standouts as Don Coleman and Frank Kush. Then, following State's 1954 Rose Bowl victory over UCLA, Munn stepped in as athletic director and named Duffy as head coach. Daugherty's '55 club went 9-1 and received the Big Ten's Rose Bowl bid, defeating UCLA, 17-14. His greatest teams, though, came in 1965 and '66 when those two star-studded squads posted a cumulative record of 19-1-1 and two Big Ten championships. The only loss was a 14-12 defeat at the hands of UCLA in the 1966 Rose Bowl and the lone tie was the monumental 10-10 "Game of the Century" vs. Notre Dame in '66. Duffy's 1965 Spartans were a defensive juggernaut and won the No. 1 ranking in the final UPI poll. During Duffy's 19 seasons at MSU, 29 different players earned first-team All-America honors. The list included such stars as Earl Morrall, Sherman Lewis, George Webster, Clinton Jones, Gene Washington, Bubba Smith, Brad Van Pelt and Billy Joe DuPree. Daugherty's individual honors included National Coach of the Year laurels in both 1955 and '65, and induction into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1984. Duffy died in 1987 at the age of 72, in Santa Barbara, Calif.

Dennis E. Stolz (1973-75)

Career Record: 19-13-1

Denny Stolz, defensive coordinator under Duffy Daugherty, was the 16th man to direct Spartan football fortunes. The graduate and former head coach at Alma College started off slowly at MSU, but soon built the Spartans into a Big Ten challenger. Stolz' second club finished a half-game behind Michigan and Ohio State in the 1974 Big Ten standings, earning him conference Coach of the Year honors. The highlight that year was an unforgettable upset victory over the top-ranked Buckeyes at Spartan Stadium. His final MSU team tied for third in the conference standings with the major accomplishment an upset victory at Notre Dame. Stolz left MSU following the 1975 season. He coached at Bowling Green State, 1977-85, and then served as head coach at San Diego State, 1986-88.

Darryl D. Rogers (1976-79)

Career Record: 24-18-2

Darryl Rogers joined the Spartan football staff following stints at Hayward State and San Jose State in California. Like the two men who preceeded him at Michigan State, Rogers' first team struggled a bit, but he bounced back big in season number two. The Spartans, who set a conference record for offensive proficiency, finished a half-game behind Michigan and Ohio State with a 6-1-1 Big Ten record. In 1978, MSU shared the Big Ten title with the Wolverines, earning Rogers Big Ten Coach of the Year honors. NCAA probation prohibited State from going to the Rose Bowl. Following the 1979 season, he left MSU for the head coaching position at Arizona State, 1980-84. Following his stint with the Sun Devils, Rogers signed as head coach of the Detroit Lions, 1985-88. During the 1991 season, he served as the head coach of the Winnipeg Blue Bombers of the Canadian Football League. He is now the athletic director at Southern Connecticut State.

Frank "Muddy" Waters (1980-82)

Career Record: 10-23-0

Frank "Muddy" Waters became only the second former Michigan State player to coach the Spartans. The personable coach was named head man at MSU one day before his 57th birthday, following a highly successful career at Hillsdale College and Saginaw Valley State. Waters compiled a 138-46-5 record in 20 seasons at Hillsdale (1954-73) and a 25-26-2 mark in five years at Saginaw Valley (1975-79), while building the program from scratch. Three Spartans — Ray Stachowicz, Morten Andersen and James Burroughs — won All-America honors during Muddy's tenure at MSU. Thanks to his contributions to small college football in Michigan, Waters was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2000. He and his wife, Mary Lou, currently reside in East Lansing.

George J. Perles (1983-94)

Career Record: 68-67-4

Former Spartan gridder and assistant coach George Perles saw his dream of becoming head coach of the MSU football program come true when he was named to the position on Dec. 3, 1982. After posting just 10 wins in three seasons prior to his arrival, Perles helped return MSU to national prominence with two bowl appearances in his first three seasons. In 1987, Perles and the Spartans captured the Big Ten title and made the program's first Rose Bowl appearance since 1966. The Spartans topped USC, 20-17, ending the year at 9-2-1, the most victories by an MSU squad since 1966, along with a No. 8 national ranking. His efforts that season earned him Football News' Coach of the Year honors. The Rose Bowl began a string of four-straight bowl appearances which included triumphs in the 1989 Aloha and '90 John Hancock Bowls. The architect of the dominating Pittsburgh Steelers' defense during the Super Bowl years (1974-75-78-79), 50 of his players were selected in the NFL Draft, including nine first-rounders. He guided the Spartans to a Big Ten slate of 53-42-3, and to seven bowl games. (Career record reflects five 1994 wins forfeited by MSU as part of 1996 self-imposed sanctions.)

Nick L. Saban (1995-1999)

Career Record: 34-24-1

Nick Saban became the 20th head football coach in MSU history on Dec. 3, 1994, following a highly successful NFL stint with the Cleveland Browns. As the Browns' defensive coordinator, he led the NFL's stingiest scoring defense in 1994 as that unit allowed the sixth-fewest points in league history. His winning ways continued at Michigan State, as he promptly became the first Spartan coach to lead his teams to bowl games in each of his first three seasons, including the 1995 Independence, '96 Sun and '97 Aloha Bowls. The Spartans returned to national prominence in 1999, going 9-2, and earning a trip to the 2000 Florida Citrus Bowl. Prior to the bowl game, Saban left to take the head coaching job at LSU. Saban previously coached at MSU, serving as an assistant coach from 1983-87, helping the Spartans to the 1987 Big Ten and '88 Rose Bowl championships.

Bobby Williams (1999-present)

Career Record: 13-11-0

Bobby Williams became the 21st head coach in Spartan history when he assumed control of the team on Dec. 5, 1999, after Nick Saban left for LSU. With Michigan State's 44-35 triumph over 20th-ranked Fresno State in the 2001 Silicon Valley Football Classic, Williams became the first head coach in Spartan football history to win his first two bowl games. He made his head coaching debut on Jan. 1, 2000, and led the Spartans to a last-second victory over No. 10 Florida, 37-34, in the Florida Citrus Bowl. Prior to taking over as head coach, Williams coached MSU's running backs for 10 years and held the position of associate head coach in 1999.

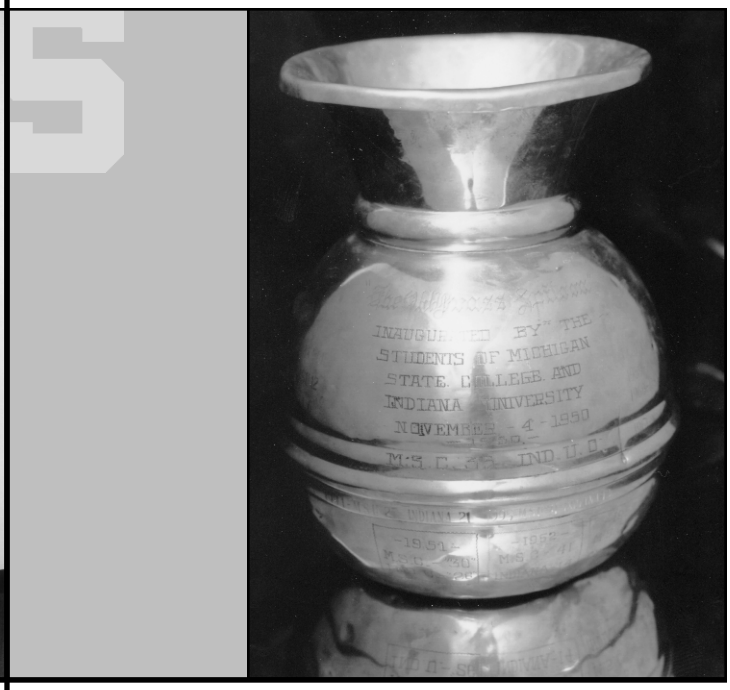
.:: Trophy Games

Paul Bunyan Trophy

Since 1953, the winner of the Michigan State-Michigan game has been presented the Paul Bunyan Trophy. The four-foot wooden statue was donated by then-Governor G. Mennen Williams to mark Michigan State's acceptance into the Big Ten. Since '53, Michigan leads the series 28-19-2. The trophy depicts the legendary giant lumberjack astride an axe with feet planted on a map of the state with flags representing the schools.

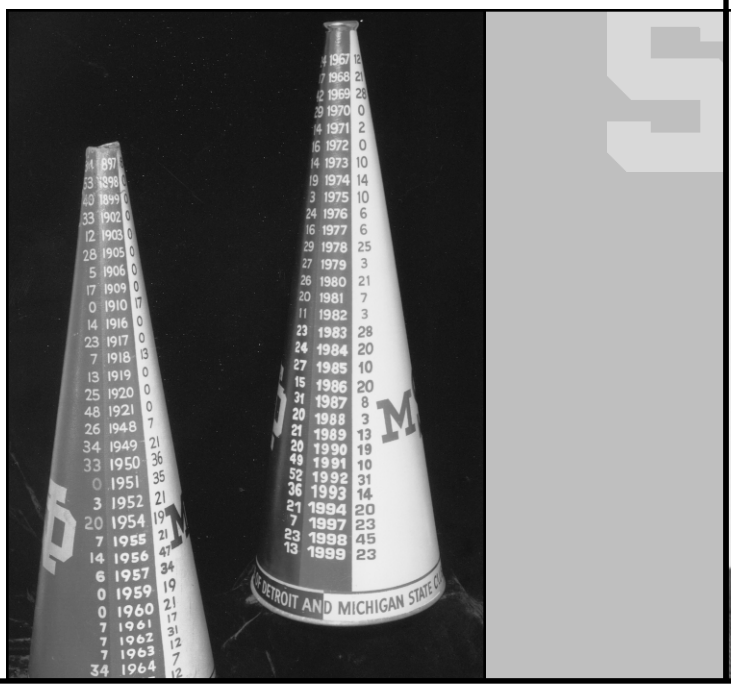
Old Brass Spittoon

Since 1950, the winner of the Michigan State-Indiana game has been presented the Old Brass Spittoon. The trophy was initiated by the junior and senior classes and the MSU student council at Michigan State, and soon accepted by the IU Student Senate. The brass spittoon came from one of Michigan's earliest trading posts and is widely believed to be nearly 150 years old. Legend has it that the spittoon was around when both institutions were founded Indiana in 1820 and MAC in 1855. Since '50, Michigan State leads the series 34-11-1.



Megaphone Trophy

Since 1949, the winner of the Michigan State-Notre Dame game has been presented the Megaphone Trophy, sponsored jointly by the Detroit alumni clubs of both schools. The megaphone is printed half blue, with a gold ND monogram, and half white, with a green MSC. All previous game scores are listed on the trophy. Michigan State and Notre Dame played 36 consecutive seasons from 1959-94 until the recent two-year interruption of the series (1995-96). The current series contract runs through the 2011 season.



Land-Grant Trophy

Since the renewal of the series in 1993, the winner of the Michigan State-Penn State game has been presented the Land-Grant Trophy. The trophy honors the two universities' unique places in history as the two pioneer land-grant schools in the nation. Each institution was founded in 1855, Michigan State on Feb. 12 and Penn State on Feb. 22. The schools were the prototypes after which the land-grand system was patterned. The trophy features pictures of campus landmarks, Michigan State's Beaumont Tower and Penn State's Old Main, plus replicas of the Spartan and Nittany Lion. Since 1993, Penn State leads the series 7-2.

... TV Games

Michigan State is a popular choice for national and regional television broadcasts. Since 1995, the Spartans have played in front of a television audience 70 times, an average of 10 TV appearances per season. Michigan State has had 185 football games televised since 1950, including 89 national telecasts. In addition, the Spartans have had three games televised live in the local market: 1990 vs. Rutgers in the Meadowlands and 1992 at Minnesota by WKAR-TV and 1994 at Kansas by WLAJ-TV. The Spartans made one non-network TV appearance prior to 1950. In 1947, Detroit's WWJ-TV televised the MSU-Michigan game from Ann Arbor, a "TV first" for the state.

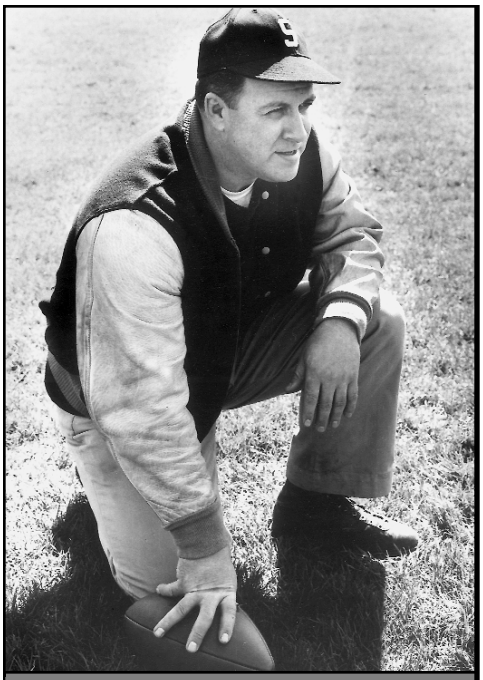
Biggie Munn : 1910–1975 :..



Biggie Munn

- Career Record: 54-9-2, 1947-53
- 28-Game Winning Streak, 1950-53
- Coach of the Year, 1952
- College Football Hall of Fame, 1959

Biggie Munn was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1959, just six years after he had moved out of football to become athletics director at Michigan State. This quick recognition was an eloquent tribute to the impact Biggie had made on the national collegiate scene during seven meteoric years at the Spartan helm from 1947-53.

His MSU record of 54 wins, 9 losses and 2 ties is remarkable. Included in the reign were two national championships, a 28-game winning streak, and a Big Ten co-championship in the only year under Munn that the team competed in the conference, the 1954 Rose Bowl bid and subsequent victory over UCLA. Eighteen of Munn's players achieved first-team All-America status from one or more organizations. Biggie himself was named Coach of the Year after his 1952 team won the national title according to the wire services.

Thousands of words have been written in newspapers, magazines and books about this glamorous Munn era at MSU.

It coincided with the greatest growth period in the history of the school and clearly played a salient role in its transformation from a medium-sized, relatively undistinguished land-grant college to a huge university with impressive national prestige. Admission to the Big Ten, primarily an athletic association with emphasis on football, was a key event in this metamorphosis.

As to physical size of athletes, Biggie relegated it to low priority when he said: "Sacrifice everything for speed and quickness. They are the keys to success in modern football."

Following that dictum, Biggie's greatest players included a pair of 190-pound guards, Don Mason and Ed Bagdon, whom Fritz Crisler called the finest pair of guards ever to play in Michigan Stadium. Then there was an incredible 180-pound tackle named Don Coleman, now in the College Football Hall of Fame, the light brigade backfield of Tom Yewcic (175), LeRoy Bolden (163), Evan Slonac (170) and Billy Wells (175), and a 185-pound guard named Frank Kush.

The biggest man in the starting offensive lineup for the 1952 national championship team was center Jim Neal at 215.

Munn's multiple offense was the marvel of its day. Its complexity and versatility produced such commentaries as that of a Portland, Ore., editor who wrote after seeing a Munn team in action: "I don't see how a college team can be taught so much offense. Even the pros don't do it."

But all the foregoing is, too many people who knew Munn well, relatively superficial. The heart of his greatness, they will argue, lies in the personality and character of the man himself.

Who would understand this better than his athletes, and here are assess-ments from several of his stars:

Don Dohoney, 1953 All-America end: "Biggie's greatest asset was his ability to organize. The men he hired all knew their jobs and what was expected of them. Biggie was able to impart the 'winning philosophy,' and we never forgot it. Biggie was a man beyond comparison."

Don Mason, All-America guard in 1949 and later a Spartan assistant coach under Munn: "I think the thing which above all others made Biggie a super coach was his complete year-round absorption in the progress of the football team and his belief that the team and each individual on it could reach a potential not yet realized. Football was as important to him in June as it was in October."

George Guerre, Biggie's first great running back at MSU: "I think his greatest asset was his ability to get 100 percent out of his players. He was a great motivator. Along with this, he was able to analyze the special talents of his players and develop a system 'for' his players instead of trying to make his players fit into a system for which they had no talent. Thus, the multiple offense came into being."

Don Coleman, All-America guard in 1951 and generally considered the finest lineman in MSU history: "He had the ability to motivate his players and coaches. He demonstrated a genuine faith and concern for people in general. He brought out the best in each member of the team and taught us to draw upon our inner strengths to achieve success. On every play, whether in practice or in a game — also in life — Biggie gave and expected from others a 100-percent effort."

There is uniformity in these appraisals which seem to zero in on one supreme talent. It is that Munn was a master of communication. In modern idiom, he made it abundantly clear to players, assistant coaches, professional athletes, "exactly where he was coming from." That seems to be the dominant hallmark of this extraordinary man.

:.: Duffy Daugherty : 1915-1987

Legends usually are rooted in solid fact, but passage of time and tricky memory eventually make them bigger than life.

So it surely has been with Duffy Daugherty. Ever since his departure in 1972 as head coach, fans have had trouble sorting out the truth from the sentimental hyperbole about the man and his career.

In such circumstances, the course of reason is to go back to the record. For Duffy, it speaks as loudly and eloquently as the most extravagant alumni bull session tales possibly could in 2000.

Some of the diamond-hard and shining facts are these:

- He worked his way from a Pennsylvania coal mine to the pinnacle of national fame as a coach, a wit, a beloved personality and a public relations ambassador for his school, which happily was Michigan State.
- He suffered a broken neck playing college football at Syracuse, but came back to captain his team as a senior.
- He went into military service in World War II as a private and came out a major.
- He devoted eight years, one at Syracuse and seven at MSU, as a lightly regarded assistant to head coach Biggie Munn, despite the fact he coached some lines that became known as "Duffy's Toughies."
- He took over the seemingly thankless chore of succeeding Munn as State's head coach, and not only didn't fumble the ball but carried it into new end zones.
- He brought four national championships to Michigan State (1955, '57, '65 and '66). He won two outright Big Ten titles and placed second four times. Seven times his teams finished in the national Top 10 in wire service balloting.
- He developed 33 major first-team All-Americans and 51 first-team All-Big Ten players.

Must games for State always are those with Michigan and Notre Dame, and Duffy came out 10-7-2 with the Wolverines and 10-7-1 with the Irish. Notre Dame thought so much of him that he had first shot at the head coaching job there but elected to stay at State, thereby opening the door for Ara Parseghian. Along the way, there were countless other big head coaching positions tossed into his lap.

He battled the serious business attitude of many of the people associated with the game and sought to make football fun for players and coaches, as well as fans. As an exemplar of this philosophy, he became known for his "Duffyisms," spontaneous witticisms that had the whole nation chuckling.

He was the first man ever to be named Coach of the Year twice by the Football Writers of America. He coached in 11 all-star bowl games, winning a majority of them. He wrote a column for the Associated Press for three years.

Duffyisms, those memorable witticisms that flowed so easily from Duffy's mouth, are at the heart of the legend. Many career details may be forgotten, but not the Duffyisms. They are not only amusing, they also reveal such characteristics of the man as his humbleness, sincerity, kindness, loyalty, love of people and lively imagination. Here is a sampling:

Commenting on the triple-option play his Michigan State team used in the 1969 season: "It's really a quadruple option the way we do it. We hand the ball off, pitch it out, pass it or maybe we just let it lie there on the ground where we dropped it."

Duffy said All-America quarterback Dean Look (1959) once deserted his interference and carried the ball for a long gainer against Notre Dame. "I really bawled him out," Duffy said. "We don't have a play like that,' I told him. 'Coach,' Dean said, 'we ought to get one.'"

On talking about Biggie Munn's selection to the College Football Hall of Fame: "You can credit me for getting Biggie in the Hall of Fame. After six years of my coaching, they appreciate what a great coach he really was."

The Michigan State defense one year stopped both Notre Dame and Indiana inches short of touchdowns. Duffy said: "I like those goal-line stands of ours but I wish they'd make them up around the 50-yard line where I can see them better."

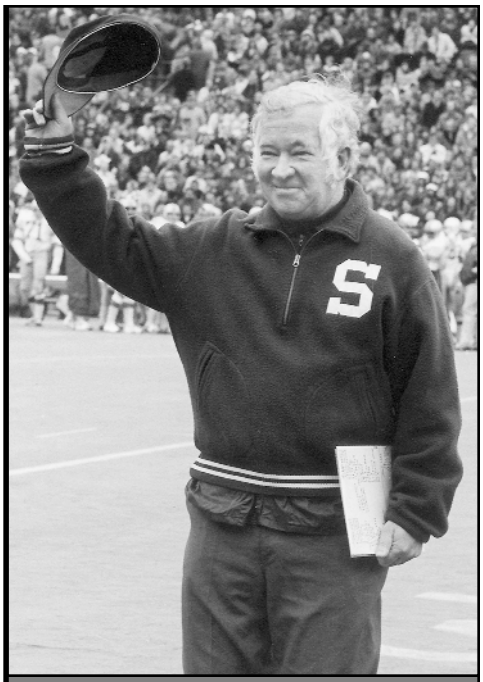
"The week of the Wisconsin game I worked hard on Walt Kowalczyk to quit that kid stuff on shifting the ball from one arm to another and trying to straight-arm people," said Duffy. "'That's for high school players,' I told him. 'Hang on to the ball!' So against Wisconsin Walt ran 72 yards for a touchdown and on the run shifted the ball three times and knocked loose three or four tacklers with the prettiest straight-arms I've ever seen. It just shows what great coaching can do for a kid."

Duffy listened at a banquet to a standing ovation given to Dr. John Wilson, former Spartan football star who became a Rhodes Scholar. "I just want to say," said Duffy when called on for some remarks, "that I could have been a Rhodes Scholar, too, except for my grades."

His assessment of the talent he had returning one year: "We're small, but we're slow."

"Football is not a contact sport," he said. "It's a collision sport. Dancing is a good idea of a contact sport."

Daugherty once apologized to a group of sports writers for being late to a luncheon with this excuse: "The one place I'm never late to is practice. It doesn't start until I get there."



Duffy Daugherty

- Career Record: 109-69-5, 1954-72
- 19-1-1 combined in 1965-66
- Coach of the Year, 1955, 1965
- College Football Hall of Fame, 1984

On MSU's triple option: "The object is to bypass the defensive tackle and end in the flow of the play without blocking them. That's easy for us. We never blocked them anyhow."

His favorite line during the banquet season after the '67 Spartans bombed with a 3-7 record. "We won three games, lost none and were upset in seven."

Duffy was asked by a reporter at the start of a season: "Whom are you happiest to see returning this year?" Without hesitation he replied: "Me."

Said Duffy as he knocked over a cup of coffee on a table full of play diagrams during a staff meeting. "Well, we've got to learn to play on a wet field anyway."

"Sherman Lewis," said Duffy, "is a great football player with one weakness — he's a senior."

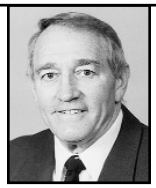
Those gems and many others like them portray the man better than someone else's words ever could.

Biggie and Duffy: The Founding Fathers

In addition to the contemporaries with Spartan lineage, the names that have dotted MSU coaching staffs throughout history read like a Who's Who of collegiate football. Beginning with Biggie Munn (1947-53) and continuing with Duffy Daugherty (1954-72), a Munn assistant from 1947-53, Michigan State began turning out quality coaches with amazing success. Among those who worked or played for the two Spartan coaching legends are:

Lou Agase
A member of Daugherty's staff from 1955-59, Agase became head coach of the CFL's Toronto Argonauts.

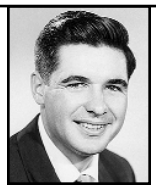
Danny Boisture
A Spartan assistant from 1959-66, Boisture later enjoyed head coaching posts for Eastern Michigan (1967-73) and the World Football League's Detroit Wheels (1974).



Hank Bullough
An MSU assistant from 1959-69, Bullough joined the pro coaching ranks in 1970 with the Baltimore Colts. He was defensive coordinator with New England, Cincinnati, Buffalo and Green Bay, and spent time as the head coach at Buffalo. After spending the 1993 season as defensive coordinator with the Detroit Lions, he returned to his alma mater for one season, 1994, in the same capacity.

Vince Carillot
After working with MSU from 1960-68, Carillot moved on to the head coaching job at Tulsa in 1969.

Bob Devaney
An MSU assistant coach from 1954-56, Devaney spent one year as head coach at Wyoming before launching Nebraska's program to national prominence from 1962-72. His teams won a pair of national titles, and he later became Nebraska's athletic director.



Dan Devine
MSU's backfield coach in 1954, Devine moved on to a storied coaching career. Devine turned out successful programs at Arizona State and Missouri, won a divisional title with the Green Bay Packers, and then went to Notre Dame where his Fighting Irish won the national title in 1977.

Al Dorow
A Spartan staff member from 1965-70, Dorow served as head coach of the CFL's Hamilton Tigercats.

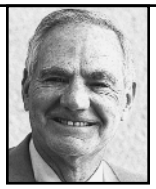
Earle Edwards
Assisting Biggie Munn from 1949-53, Edwards went on to become head coach at N.C. State (1954-70).

Forest Evashevski
Forest served under Biggie Munn from 1947-49, and later became head coach at Iowa (1952-60).

Chuck Fairbanks
An MSU letterwinner in 1954, Fairbanks began his coaching career under former Spartan Frank Kush at Arizona State. Fairbanks later assisted Bill Yeoman at Houston, and ultimately landed head coaching stints with Oklahoma (1967-72), the NFL's New England Patriots (1973-78), and then back to the college ranks at Colorado (1979-81).

Wayne Fontes
Fontes, a two-sport Spartan in football and baseball (1960-62), coached the 1965 freshman team to embark on his coaching career. He went on to serve as head coach of the NFL's Detroit Lions for eight seasons (1988-96).

Everett "Sonny" Grandelius
Sonny, an All-America running back at MSU, coached at his alma mater from 1954-58, then became the youngest head coach at 29 in Colorado's history. He guided the Buffaloes to a 20-9 mark over three years (1959-61), and later coached in the pros with Philadelphia and Detroit.



Frank Kush
Kush earned All-America honors in 1952 and lettered three years under Munn, during which the Spartans went 26-1. Kush went on to become head coach at Arizona State (1958-79), and then headed the NFL's Baltimore Colts.

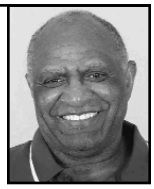
Sherman Lewis
A 1963 All-American at MSU, Lewis was a member of the Spartan coaching staff from 1969-82, serving as assistant head coach and defensive coordinator during his last three seasons. Lewis jumped to the NFL coaching ranks in 1983, beginning a nine-year stint with the San Francisco 49ers where he coached the running backs and wide receivers. He served as offensive coordinator for eight years for the Green Bay Packers (1992-99) and held the same position for two seasons for the Minnesota Vikings (2000-01). In 2002, Lewis begins his 20th season in the NFL as a special assistant (offense) with the Detroit Lions.

John McVay
From 1962-64, McVay was a member of the Spartan staff. His coaching travels took him through various NFL camps, including the job of vice president/general manager with the San Francisco 49ers.

Buck Nystrom
Getting his collegiate coaching start with MSU in 1958, Buck's resume includes national championships while with staffs at North Dakota State, Oklahoma and Northern Michigan. Nystrom also coached at Colorado, and rejoined MSU under George Perles from 1983-86.

George Perles
Perles coached under Daugherty from 1967-71, then began an 11-year career with the Pittsburgh Steelers before returning to MSU, where he completed a 12-year reign in 1994.

John Polonchek
John spent 15 years with various NFL coaching staffs after serving the 1957 and 1958 seasons with the Spartans.



Jimmy Raye
An All-Big Ten quarterback at MSU in 1966, Raye served as an assistant coach for the Spartans from 1971-75. After a one-year stint at Wyoming, he joined the NFL ranks as receivers coach with San Francisco in 1977. A 25-year NFL coaching veteran, his resume includes stops at Detroit (1978-79), Atlanta (1980-82; 1987-89), Los Angeles Rams (1983-84; 1991), Tampa Bay (1985-86), New England (1990), Kansas City (1992-2000) and Washington (2001). Prior to the 2002 season, Raye moved on to the New York Jets where he serves as the senior offensive assistant under Herman Edwards.

Doug Weaver
A 1953 MSU grad and three-year gridder, Weaver began his coaching career with the Spartans in 1956. Following stints as head coach at Kansas State (1960-66) and Southern Illinois (1974-75), and as athletic director at SIU and Georgia Tech, Weaver returned to MSU in 1980 as athletics director.

Bill Yeoman
After eight years under Duffy Daugherty's tutelage (1954-61), Yeoman was hired as head coach at the University of Houston where he held the post for 25 years (1962-86) and was credited with the development of the veer offense.

1938 :: Orange Bowl

Jan. 1, 1938
Miami, Fla.

The fourth annual Orange Bowl game wasn't nearly as close as the final score might indicate as Auburn dominated play on both sides of the football in recording a shutout victory, 6-0, over Michigan State. It still ranks as the lowest-scoring game in Orange Bowl history. Auburn wasted two scoring opportunities in the first quarter. Jimmy Fenton's 25-yard run gave the Tigers a first-and-10 at the MSU 12 but the Spartan defense responded by stuffing three-straight running plays and Lyle Rockenbach broke up Fenton's fourth-down pass. Tom McShannock's interception and 29-yard return ended Auburn's second scoring threat. The game's only touchdown came in the second quarter and it was set up by George Kenmore's 28-yard pass to Ralph O'Gwynne to the MSU 2. Auburn fullback Pel Sitz netted only 1 yard on three carries before O'Gwynne scored on a 1-yard run around left end on fourth-and-goal. The Tigers had several chances in the second half to break the game open. Auburn turned the ball over on downs at the MSU 16 in the third quarter after Dutch Heath's 12-yard interception return to the MSU 24. Michigan State failed to record a first down until late in the third quarter when Ed Pearce broke a 29-yard run. Auburn drove inside the MSU 30 twice in the fourth quarter but failed to put points on the scoreboard. The Spartans' only other first down came on a 23-yard pass from John Pingel to Usif Haney midway through the fourth quarter. Auburn outgained Michigan State, 278-67, total yards. Fenton and Speck Kelly combined for 137 of the Tigers' 197 rushing yards, gaining 76 and 61 yards, respectively. Auburn held Pingel, MSU's All-America halfback, to 12 yards rushing on seven carries. A sellout crowd of nearly 19,000 attended the game at Miami's brand-new $360,000 Roddy Burdine Stadium.

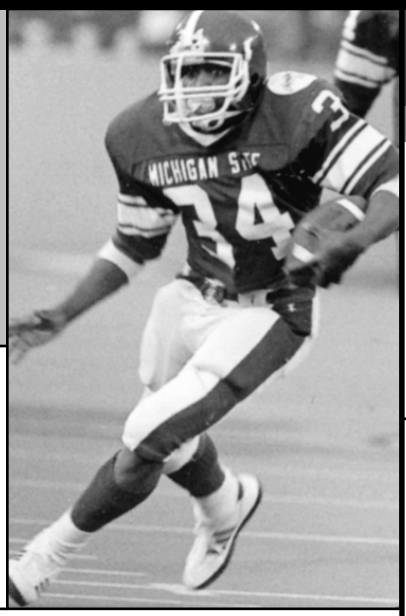
1984 :: Cherry Bowl

Dec. 22, 1984
Pontiac, Mich.

Wishbone quarterback Nate Sassaman rushed for 136 yards on 28 carries to lead Army, making its first-ever bowl appearance, to a 10-6 triumph over Michigan State in the 1984 Cherry Bowl. Michigan State had an early scoring chance after Phil Parker intercepted a rare Army pass and returned 18 yards to the Cadet 43. Three plays netted only 8 yards and Ralf Mojsiejenko's 52-yard field-goal attempt missed wide left. The Spartans put together a nine-play, 58-yard drive but early in the second quarter on third-and-goal from the Army 5, Dave Yarema's pass was intercepted in the end zone by Kermit McKelvy. A Michigan State fumble near midfield led to Army's only touchdown. Cadet Clarence Jones capped off an eight-play, 46-yard drive with a 4-yard run off right tackle to give Army a 7-0 lead with 6:41 left in the first half. Early in the third quarter, Sassaman rushed eight times for 37 yards during a 14-play, 49-yard drive but Craig Stopa's 32-yard field-goal try went wide right. Army converted a Spartan fumble into a field goal and a 10-0 lead in the fourth quarter as a 15-play, 59-yard drive produced a 38-yard field goal by Stopa with 8:40 remaining. A Cadet fumble gave Michigan State life as Tom Allan recovered the ball at the MSU 49. Three plays later, Yarema found Bob Wasczenski in the left corner of the end zone with a 36-yard TD strike. The two-point pass attempt failed and Michigan State trailed 10-6 with 4:19 left. Army gained 256 yards rushing on 71 attempts while controlling the clock for 34:05. The Cadets sacked Yarema six times and picked off three of his passes, including two by Doug Pavek.



Lorenzo White rushed for 103 yards but the Spartans dropped a 10-6 decision to Army in the 1984 Cherry Bowl.

Michigan State extended its lead to 17-10 on Langeloh's 40-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter. USC put together a 10-play, 80-yard drive to tie the score at 17 on Peete's 22-yard TD toss to Henry in the back of the end zone with 8:33 remaining. Facing a third-and-8 from the MSU 30, McAllister eluded a heavy rush and completed a 36-yard pass to Rison for a first down at the USC 34. Blake Ezor carried the ball six straight times to the USC 18 to set up Langeloh's game-winning field goal. USC took the ensuing kickoff and drove to the MSU 30 but Peete fumbled away the center snap and Todd Krumm recovered. John Miller iced the game for the Spartans, intercepting Peete's "Hail Mary" pass at the MSU 13 with only :03 left. USC dominated the final stats, outgaining MSU, 410-276, in total yards but the Trojans committed five turnovers while the Spartans managed to play error-free football. White gained a game-high 113 yards rushing and scored twice. Peete completed 22-of-41 throws for 249 yards and two TDs but he was intercepted three times.

Lorenzo White rushed for 113 yards and two scores in Michigan State's 20-17 triumph over Southern Cal in the 1988 Rose Bowl. The win snapped the Big Ten's six-game losing streak in Pasadena.

Courtney Hawkins accounted for 216 all-purpose yards and caught a touchdown pass to lead No. 22 Michigan State to a 17-16 win over No. 21 Southern Cal in the 1990 Sun Bowl. MSU dodged a bullet early as Mike Iaquaniello intercepted a Todd Marinovich pass in the end zone on USC's first series. Late in the first quarter, the Trojans put together an eight-play, 60-yard drive to take a 7-0 lead on Marinovich's 7-yard pass to Gary Wellman. After a Spartan fumble, USC was again knocking on the door but on a fourth-and-inches play from inside the MSU 1, Marinovich mishandled the snap from center and Alan Haller recovered the fumble in the end zone for a touchback. MSU took advantage of the turnover and Hyland Hickson capped a 10-play, 80-yard drive with an 18-yard TD run with 2:22 left in the first half. USC opened the second half with an 18-play, 80-yard drive that last nine minutes but it had to settle for a 20-yard field goal from Quin Rodriguez. The Spartans responded by scoring 10-straight points. On a third-and-13 play from the MSU 26, Dan Enos hit Hawkins on a post pattern for a 41-yard gain and a first down at the USC 33. Four plays later, Hawkins scored on a 21-yard pass from Enos that gave MSU its first lead at 14-10. Freddie Wilson's interception at the USC 34 late in the third quarter led to a 52-yard field goal by John Langeloh as the Spartans built a 17-10 advantage. The Trojans got field goals of 54 and 43 yards from Rodriguez in the fourth quarter to cut the deficit to 17-16. MSU iced the game with two rushing first downs in the final three minutes. Hawkins caught six passes for 106 yards and a score to earn Sun Bowl MVP honors. Enos connected on nine-of-17 throws for 131 yards, including eight-straight completions during one stretch. Marinovich completed 18-of-30 passes for 174 yards but threw three interceptions. USC's Mazio Royster rushed for a game-high 125 yards on 32 carries.

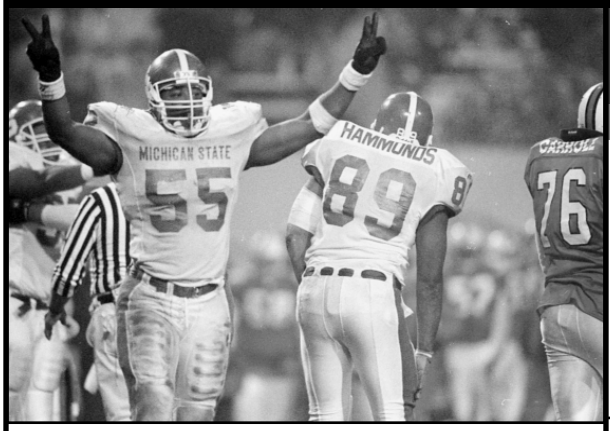
1993 :: Liberty Bowl

Dec. 28, 1993
Memphis, Tenn.

Jeff Brohm completed 19-of-29 passes for 197 yards and a touchdown to lead Louisville to an 18-7 win over Michigan State in the 1993 Liberty Bowl. Michigan State's only touchdown came on the game's first series. The Spartans took the opening kickoff and drove 79 yards in 11 plays with Duane Goulbourne twisting into the end zone on a 1-yard run over left guard. Spartan QB Jim Miller started with a hot hand, hitting all four pass attempts for 50 yards on the first series. Louisville also scored on its first possession as an eight-play, 56-yard march ended with David Akers' 31-yard field goal. Midway through the second quarter, the Spartans missed out on a scoring chance when Bill Stoyanovich misfired on a 31-yard field-goal attempt. Louisville put together a 14-play, 74-yard drive in the third quarter but failed to put points on the scoreboard as Akers missed a 23-yard field-goal try. Brohm directed a seven-play, 59-yard drive for the go-ahead score early in the fourth quarter, hitting Reggie Ferguson on a crossing pattern for a 25-yard TD pass. A 24-yard interception return by Darius Watson gave Louisville the ball back at the MSU 33 but seven plays later, the Spartan defense stopped Anthony Shelman short of the goal line on fourth-and-1. The Cardinals got two points back on the next play as Joe Johnson and Tyrus McCloud tackled Spartan tailback Craig Thomas in his own end zone for a safety. Louisville iced the game with a seven-play, 54-yard drive as Ralph Dawkins scored on an 11-yard sweep around right end.



Rich Glover (55) had two quarterback sacks and put constant pressure on Louisville's Jeff Brohm in the 1993 Liberty Bowl.

Michigan State tied the game at 7 on Smoker's 72-yard bomb to Rogers with 6:16 left in the first quarter. The Spartans scored again 22 seconds later to take a 14-7 lead as Monquiz Wedlow recovered a mishandled snap in the end zone. The Bulldogs pulled even at 14 on Carr's 36-yard TD pass to Rodney Wright with 3:20 left in the first half. Michigan State regained the lead at 17-14 as a seven-play, 59-yard drive resulted in a season-long 41-yard field goal by Dave Rayner with :05 remaining in the first quarter. The Spartans extended their lead to 24-14 as T.J. Duckett finished off a 10-play, 82-yard drive with a 5-yard TD run with 8:53 left in the first half. Fresno State cut its deficit to 24-21 as Carr again hooked up with Wright, this time for a 79-yard scoring play, with 7:47 remaining in the second quarter. Michigan State responded on its next series as Duckett scored his second rushing touchdown, a 39-yard run around left end on a fourth-and-1 play, with 5:05 left in the first half. The Spartans built a 37-21 halftime lead thanks to Smoker's 69-yard TD throw to Rogers with 3:05 remaining in the second quarter. Michigan State gained 405 of its 586 total yards in the first half. Fresno State put together an 11-play, 82-yard drive midway through the third quarter and cut its deficit to 37-28 on a 2-yard TD run by Paris Gaines. With seven minutes left in the game, Fresno State's Bryce McGill blocked Craig Jarrett's punt and Maurice Rodriguez returned it 17 yards to the MSU 15. Three plays later, Gaines scored on a 15-yard screen pass from Carr as the Bulldogs rallied to within two, 37-35, with 6:04 on the clock. The Spartans clinched the game with a seven-play, 77-yard touchdown drive. Smoker's 43-yard completion to Rogers set up his third TD pass, a 5-yard toss to Ivory McCoy, that gave Michigan State a 44-35 lead with 1:59 left. The Spartans and Bulldogs combined for 48 first downs, 79 points and 1,146 total yards. Rogers had 10 receptions for a school-record 270 yards to earn Silicon Valley Football Classic Offensive MVP honors. Duckett rushed for a Spartan bowl-record 184 yards on 27 carries.
